Fair ends tonight

Another record-breaking steer sale and a thrilling auto demolition derby highlighted the Fayette County Fair Friday as judging activity came to an end.

Scott Jenks' grand champion steer, a 1,200-pound Charolais, was sold to Royal Blue Market, Jeffersonville, and the Fayette County Bank for a record $150. cwt.

The champion beef carcass brought one of the outstanding prices of the week. Marting Manufacturing paid a record $375. cwt. for the carcass, cut out of a steer raised by Art Schlichter. Last year's champion carcass brought $160 cwt.

The reserve champion brought a record $125. cwt., with Sohigro Service Co. making the purchase of Belinda Melton's Angus steer.

In all, 77 steers were sold at an average price of $72.05 cwt.

Brothers W. L. (Lucky) and Larry Webb, of London and Orient, battled to a dead heat in the final heat of the auto demolition derby, earning $100 each.

A LARGE CROWD of 2,342 watched the demolition derby's three elimination heats and the final.

The final was a long, hard-fought affair, with the Webbs the only survivors. They were unable to put each other out of commission and agreed to call it a draw. The trophy contributed by Roney Auto Parts, went to Larry by mutual consent. The Webbs have been successful in demolition derbies here in the past.

The first heat was won by John Seitz, Bloomingburg, with Robert Seaman, Leesburg, second, and Fred Miles, 7022 Creek Rd., third.

Lucky Webb was first and Larry Webb second in the second heat, with Leonard Collins, Rt. 2, third. Lucky Webb was in the heat only because one of those scheduled to drive was unable to make it, and Webb was on the alternates list.

The third heat was won by David Grubb, U.S. 35-S, with James Delong, Newport, second, and Frank Wood, Jr., New Holland, third.

Heat winners received $25 and trophies from Warner's Arco. Second place in the preliminary heats was worth $15 and third was worth $10.

Another demolition derby, with 45 different drivers, is set for 8 p.m. Saturday.

AS USUAL, Friday's crowd surpassed those of other days this week. The paid attendance was 4,512, bringing the Fair's total attendance to 17,492, which is 1,929 fewer than attended the first six days of last year's Fair.

Malcolm Bloomer, Eddie Kirk, Frank Weade and J. W. Sears were all re-elected to three-year terms on the Fair Board in an election conducted Friday. They were unopposed.

Beth Jenks and Karen Kiger were selected to represent Fayette County in the Ohio State Fair horse show after the completion of the 4-H saddle horse and pony show. The show was stopped by rain Wednesday.

Open class sheep and beef were judged Friday, bringing to an end the livestock judging.

The Junior Fair awards roundup is set for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, with the demolition derby at 8 p.m. the last event on the 1973 Fair calendar.

175 attend services for murder victim

Mark B. Matson, 16, of 138 Laurel Rd., whose body was found a week ago cemented into a block of concrete in a Dade County, Fla., home, was buried Friday in Washington Cemetery following services in the Church of Christ in Christian Union.

More than 175 friends, relatives and classmates attended the services where the Rev. Robert Kline recalled a statement by a Dade County detective who said Mark died like a man, trying to resist what he thought was wrong.

A half hour of organ music by David Puckett preceded the start of the services when Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Matson; his brothers, Michael, 20, and Bruce, 11, and about 25 other family members formed a procession to the front of the church where the youth's casket stood, surrounded by at least 25 large baskets of flowers. A large spray of red roses covered the closed casket and an 8 x 10 photograph of the young man hung from the pulpit behind the casket.

During the service, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Streitenberger presented a vocal duet.

Pallbearers were Doug Matson,

Skylab mission gets under way

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Three American astronauts rocketed into orbit today to start man's longest planned space journey, a 59-day study of the sun, stars, earth and man from aboard the Skylab space station.

"We're really moving out," commander Alan L. Bean reported as the astronauts' Apollo ferry ship sped into an orbit ranging from about 94 to 140 miles high.

Bean, 41, Dr. Owen K. Garriott, 42, and Jack R. Lousma, 37, immediately began a 17,100-mile-an-hour pursuit of the unmanned 85-ton laboratory, which passed over Cape Kennedy just minutes before they started the marathon space adventure.

By the time they reached orbit, the station was 2,500 miles ahead.

With Bean at the controls, the Apollo was to be steered through a series of rocket-firing maneuvers to gradually close in on the Skylab, which is the size of a three-bedroom house.

Linkup of the two space vehicles was scheduled for 3:41 p.m. EDT, 271 miles above the Pacific.

Once aboard the Skylab, Navy Capt. Bean, solar physicist Garriott and Marine Maj. Lousma hope to more than double the 28-day space flight record set last month by the Skylab 1 crew, whose efforts saved the damaged station.

The mission will be the most rigorous test yet of man's ability to withstand the physical and psychological stresses of prolonged space travel. The medical results will have a bearing on whether astronauts one day will embark on long voyages to other planets.

The spacemen started the trip on the power of a 22-storytall Saturn 1B rocket that thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on time at 7:11 a.m.

Thousands of persons in the area watched the fiery liftoff, but the rocket quickly vanished in low-hanging clouds 34 seconds after it left the pad.

Ten minutes later, Mission Control told the astronauts they were in a good orbit.

"Tell the guys at KSC thanks, it was a nice, nice job," Bean told the control

Plane crash kills attorney

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A prominent Cincinnati attorney died in a light plane crash at Lunken Airport Friday that injured three others, including his 17-year-old daughter.

Robert M. Dennis, 55, died when the twin-engine plane he was in crashed shortly after takeoff.

Dennis was president of the Cincinnati Bar Association.

Others hospitalized were the pilot, Paul R. Donahue, 50, King City, Ont.; Dennis' daughter Sally, and Kenneth Connor, 18, also of Cincinnati.

The plane was reportedly being checked out for a trip to the Carolinas.

center, referring to the Kennedy Space Center launch team.

As the rocket darted away from the Cape and over the Atlantic Ocean, the commander reported: "You really get a feeling of motion up here. We're really moving."

"I sure would like to try that liftoff

again," Lousma said. "That was great."

Once in orbit, the astronauts separated the Apollo from the burned-out third stage and turned around to take a look at it.

"We've got this baby right in front of us and it is beautiful," Bean said.

Oklahoma prison riot fatal to 2

MCALISTER, Okla. (AP) — Police and National Guard troops appeared ready to fight their way if necessary into the riot-torn Oklahoma State Prison today, where rebellious convicts still held 19 hostages.

Two inmates were killed during 14 hours of rioting Friday, and at least a dozen buildings were destroyed by fires set by the insurgents, prison officials said. Two guards suffered stab wounds.

A prison doctor said one of the dead inmates apparently had been stabbed to death by fellow prisoners. It was not known how the other was killed. His body was still lying in a prison yard under the control of the rioters.

The physician, Dr. Rafael Cott, said he treated 12 other prisoners for injuries but had not been allowed to examine the hostages.

Of the number of prisoners involved in the riot, Associate Warden Paul Graham told newsmen Friday night, "We believe there are no more than 250 of them, but there could be as many as 1,000."

Two of 21 original hostages, both guards, were released, apparently because they suffered heart conditions, Graham said.

He said a list of demands issued by the convicts apparently asked for changes that were only recently instituted.

Gov. David Hall sent word to the convicts he would not meet with them until all hostages were released and the inmates returned to their cells.

Graham said officials had a plan ready to fight into the prison if the hostages' lives appeared to be in danger. He would not disclose details. The convicts apparently have no guns.

Graham said officers encircling the prison and those inside the walls were under orders to shoot only under "extreme circumstances."

He said some of the prison's 1,750 inmates were moved to local jails.

Corrections Department officials continued to talk with the barricaded convicts periodically into the night.

The facility was ringed by officers and by National Guard military police in battle gear. Joining prison guards and the MPs were state highway patrol officers and police from McAlester.

The riot, the worst in the prison's history, began at midafternoon Friday when five unarmed inmates attacked two guards, Lt. Thomas Payne and Capt. C.C. Smith, in the mess hall, Graham said.

Graham said both Payne and Smith received knife wounds and were hospitalized. He said the attackers were "doped up on something."

'Dirt' proper campaign issue, Ehrlichman says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political campaigns may focus on more than the candidates' views on issues, according to John D. Ehrlichman.

Drinking problems, sexual habits and domestic situations also are valid campaign subjects, President Nixon's former chief domestic adviser told the Senate Watergate committee Friday.

"I know of my own knowledge of incumbents in office who are not discharging their obligations to their constituents because of their drinking habits," he said.

"Constituents at home have no way of knowing that you can go over here in the gallery of Congress and watch a member totter onto the floor in a condition of at least partial inebriation which would preclude him making any sort of sober judgment on the issues that confront this country."

Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., questioning Ehrlichman, asked:

"Do you really want to bring the political system of the United States, of our campaigns, down to the level which you are talking about right now?"

Ehrlichman answered: "I know in your situation your lifestyle undoubtedly is impeccable and there wouldn't be anything at issue like that."

"Maybe my standards are all haywire, that everybody in the Congress ought to be immune from scrutiny on that subject, but that seems to me to be an indefensible position on your part," the former White House aide said.

Weicker and Ehrlichman squared off (Please turn to Page 12)

7 persons killed in highway crash

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) — Seven persons died early today on the New Jersey Turnpike when a moving van veered across the center median and slammed head-on into a camper vehicle, police said.

Only one of the victims, the truck driver, Anzor Cengiz, 33, of Paterson, could be immediately identified. The other six dead, all occupants of the camper, were too badly burned in the fiery crash for immediate identification, police said.

Cengiz's brother, Cagar, 21, also of Paterson, was the lone survivor of the crash.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD — The casket of 16-year-old Mark B. Matson is carried from Church of Christ in Christian Union following funeral services Friday afternoon. The youth, who was murdered in Dade County, Fla., was buried in Washington Cemetery. About 175 persons attended the services.

The other preliminary winners were Dawn Daler, Teresa Jordan, Susie Pero, Lisaellen Maddux, Nancy Carmen and Kitty Pero.

Beef supply tightens across Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Food store owners and managers and meat processors in some parts of Ohio say that customers are demanding more beef, but that the beef market appears to be tightening.

The Kroger Co. and Heinen's Inc. in Cleveland said their warehouses are empty and that some stores are already out of beef. Other supermarket chains in the Cleveland area estimated that they have enough beef to last through the week.

Some Northeastern Ohio meat cutters said they have been notified by supermarkets that there will be cut-backs in working hours and layoffs next week if the situation gets worse.

A Cleveland meat wholesaler said farmers are carrying on their own boycott against those who boycotted meat in April.

"The boycotters last spring made the packers and farmers look silly and now the farmers are getting even. The end product will be higher prices for their products."

Beef sales in Cleveland were brisk amid rumors of a shortage.

"Business is usually slow the last week of the month, said Eagle Supermarkets President Joseph Sirna. "But this week it's just as good as the first week when people usually have the money."

The Akron Packing Co. in Richfield normally handles 1.3 million pounds of beef a week. The company said Friday that it will close Monday and reopen when cattle become available. The firm employs 125.

A spokesman for the Kroger Co. in Cincinnati said the beef shortage is real.

"I certainly anticipate shortages next week and the week after," said Manly Molpus, spokesman for the firm.

Customers also are buying beef in greater quantities in the Cincinnati area.

"It's a panic buying," said Ray Reuss, owner of Greenhills Food Storage Locker. "Customer are no longer worried about the price, they just want a side of beef for their freezer. They're running scared."

Reuss said he normally sells about 25 sides of beef a week, but now has a waiting list of 250 orders.

Ron Enderle, co-owner of Enderle's Meats, said his firm is "booked up into September with orders for beef sides."

"We've turned away about 20 orders for sides of beef this week," Enderle said. He noted that the store normally sells one side or less a week.

Jerry Burger, one of the owners of the Family Beef Club in the Queen City, said his store has been able to fill its orders.

"I don't feel we will have to turn anyone away," he said. "The cattle will be higher priced, but I still think we will be able to fill our orders."

Two A&P store managers in Columbus said their meat supplies and sales have been about average.

Store managers at Big Bear and Kroger stores in Columbus also reported average sales.

Q. — About three years ago, when we bought our present house, the previous owner told me that he had never put a finish of any kind on the knotty pine walls in our family room.

The walls seemed all right then, but now they appear to have a considerable amount of dirt on them. I would like to finish them with shellac as I did a similar room some years ago in another house, but I would like to ask your advice about the best way to get the dirt off.

A. — The best cleansing agent for the walls, since you are going to finish them with shellac, is denatured alcohol. Use a clean cloth saturated with the alcohol and rub as much as is needed to remove the dirt. Change cloths when the one you are using gets dirty.

Be sure to dilute the shallac before applying it to the walls. Use 50 per cent shallac and 50 per cent denatured alcohol. Even white or clear shallac will darken the wood somewhat. If you want a more pronounced color, use orange shallac.

Q. — I know that it is important to mix the right amount of water with sand and gravel to make concrete.

Since the amount of water depends on whether the sand is wet or dry, I would like to know the difference between damp sand and wet sand. Sometimes one is mentioned, sometimes the other.

A. — To determine just how wet sand is, pick up a handful of it, then open your hand and let go of it. If the sand felt wet but your hand was dry after you released it, then it generally is classified as damp.

If the sand felt wet and it left your hand wet after you let go of it, then it is considered wet sand.

Q. — I have to do some painting around our farm. Is it safe to use aluminum paint on such things as feed bins and water troughs or is there a possibility that it might poison the animals if they happen to chew on it?

A. — Aluminum paint is usually lead-free and its pigment is nontoxic. But since there is always the possibility of a formula that is not safe for your purpose, read the label carefully to be sure the paint does not contain either lead or mercury.

Education tax suit goes to federal court

OTTAWA, Ohio (AP) — Spokesmen for the Ohio Farmers Union said Friday that a federal court hearing on the organization's suit challenging the property tax as a means of financing education in the state will be held sometime this fall.

Shape up the IRS

The new commissioner of internal revenue, Donald C. Alexander, is quite right in his conclusion that "maintaining public confidence in this agency" must be one of his most important concerns. He and his associates will have to take a prior step first, however; before they can maintain confidence in the IRS, they must restore it.

A WORD EDGEWISE . . . by John P. Roche

Nixon's economics: a shambles

The Greeks had a word for it — it being what the Nixon Administration conspicuously lacks. The word was "telos," which meant both purpose and limits.

The more one waits and watches, the more he becomes convinced that never in modern history has the Executive Branch been occupied by such an ideologically aimless and practically unscrupulous crew.

Take economic policy, for example, where you have visions of Mr. Nixon in July 1975, announcing Phase XVI of his "plan." To any rational observer, be he liberal, conservative or Parsee, the handling of the economy has been a shambles, a series of ad-hoc decisions often internally inconsistent. Words have lost their meaning: in the name of the free market, Mr. Nixon has imposed controls.

Then there is the Cambodian bombing. Skipping the constitutional question of the President's right to bomb, let us ask the more fundamental question: Why? The answer, presumably, is to keep the Communists from defeating the government.

Now I don't want to see the Communists take over Cambodia, but the nasty fact is that there is no government. Lon Nol, if not clinically insane, is at least totally incompetent. He can't "hack it" (as they say around the White House), but he has sufficient power to prevent other, more competent men from trying.

One of the things I learned at my father's knee was that you can't win a race without a horse. In Cambodia we have no horse. So why bomb? Presumably because there is nothing else to do.

IN APRIL, 1965, I criticized the Johnson Administration's decision to launch the sustained bombing of North Vietnam (I was always a critic of the bombing strategy) and suggested that it was motivated in part by our frustrations in Saigon. I quoted Edmund Burke's critique of Lord North's government, that is was seized "by a general notion that some act of power was become necessary."

We could hardly bomb Saigon, I added, "so the planes went North." The bombing of Cambodia seems to me a purposeless display of firepower, sustained by "a general notion" that we have to do something.

Similarly, how can one rationalize all this mad bugging? Right now the press

This is said not solely in reference to current allegations about use of the IRS machinery to harass so-called "enemies" of those in power. The IRS also has other things to answer for, activities which fall under the general heading of going easy on wealthy tax loop-holders while being tough on smaller fry.

Tough tax inequities are more the fault of Congress than of the Internal Revenue Service, but the latter cannot shrug off responsibility for how it implements the law. Alexander's undertaking to firm up the agency and make it do what it is supposed to do — and nothing else — is a big task in which we wish him well.

CONTRAST THIS with the permanent, floating bug that Mr. Nixon apparently wore like a tie-clip. What was the point of it all? If we were not discussing the top echelon of the government of the United States, the whole business would be preposterous. But it is part of the same aimless pattern.

The lack of any sense of limits was crisply stated by former Attorney General John Mitchell when he was interrogated by the Ervin Committee. When Sen. Talmadge asked if he really thought it was more important to reelect Nixon than to break the news of Watergate to the President, and presumably open it up, Mitchell replied impassively, "You put it exactly correctly."

The Greeks had a word for this too: "hubris," which was inevitably followed by "nemesis."

Your Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

SUNDAY, JULY 29

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

You should have no trouble carrying out necessary requirements, but this is no time to take on "extras" or to scatter energies. In general, stick to routine.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

Small things may try your patience, but you have the will power to overcome aggravation. Use it! Keep your mind clear so you can act at properly strategic moments.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

It is difficult for you to contain yourself at times, but this is one of the days when you MUST. Otherwise, mix-ups and misunderstandings will ensue.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

It may be a crowded period but you have the mental agility to clear the way. Just do not overtax yourself or burn the proverbial candle at both ends.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Don't go against present trends or you may find yourself completely out of step with others. Some of your future objectives are now taking shape.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Take nothing for granted. Investigate all situations carefully and, in general, "expect the unexpected." Romance and family concerns highly favored.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Unless careful, you could become inextricably involved in a most undesirable situation. Don't play games with another's emotions — no matter how stimulating it may seem at the moment.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

A bit of friendly advice could mushroom into a profitable move. Don't hesitate to grab the chance when you get it.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A pleasant surprise due. You finally received assurance that your ideas are sound and will be carried out bringing a tremendous increase in your prestige.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Get all promises in writing. Others will respect you, if fair but firm. As light disappointment could eventually rebound in your favor, so . . . patience!

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Caution will be your ally now. Be wary — and a shrewd observer. A so-called friend may be trying some unsavory maneuvers. Watch and wait — and you will emerge victorious.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to March 20)

A good time to take the initiative in business matters, to express independence of thought and action. You are sometimes too hesitant for your own good.

YOU BORN TODAY are well-endowed mentally; often achieve physically as well — as, for instance, in the world of sports; can attain in almost any field in which you are interested. Yours is a Sign of vibrance and magnanimity, and it also endows you with great strength of will, determination, idealism, enthusiasm, keen intuition and foresight. Your personality is dynamic, fits you for leadership in many fields — notably as writer, editor, merchant, banker, actor or painter — but you must curb a tendency to be overbearing with others.

MONDAY, JULY 30

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

To achieve worthwhile goals now, you will need the cooperation of others, so don't be overly aggressive or try to force issues. Tact!

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

Be sure with whom you make agreements, commitments. All situations may not please, but keep trying. Those showing least promise may turn out most satisfying.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Influences somewhat mixed. There may be more than meets the eye in some situations. Be alert, but not overly suspicious.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

A time for re-evaluating your position, your attitude, your approach to all matters. With all in clear focus, you can stabilize "cloudy" situations.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Favored for rapid advancement: Business matters, research, theatrical interests; also, educational activities, political and scientific pursuits. A good day!

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Generous planetary influences favor new enterprises, with gratifying returns indicated. Coast is clear for ACTION — But within reason.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

There are tendencies now to take off on tangents and to ease up in effort just when more persistence is needed. Don't fail yourself by yielding to such inclinations.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Your intuition and fine judgment in familiar activities will be a boon in tight spots now. You COULD try something new if so inclined, but don't go beyond your depth.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A good day for starting or developing new business associations. An unusual idea could spark a brand new approach in career matters, as well.

Dear Abby:

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Leukemia threatens

her 'love story'

DEAR ABBY: I had a date with a very handsome and charming fellow nearly three years ago. We seemed to hit it off, but he never called me again and that was that.

A month ago he called me out of the blue and the first thing he asked was, "Are you married yet?" I kiddingly said, "No, I'm still waiting for you!" He asked me for a date that very night. I accepted.

Well, we had a marvelous time. We danced and laughed and talked and just hated to say goodnight. Before we parted he asked if he could see me the next night. In fact, he dated me up for every night that week. Abby, I was in heaven! I never knew two people could fall in love so fast.

We saw each other every other night for nearly three weeks, and then came the bombshell! He told me he loved me and would ask me to marry him, but he had leukemia and his time was running out. At first I thought he was giving me a line, but then he showed me all the books and medical journals he had collected on the subject, and he invited me to talk to his doctor. I did, and the doctor said he had maybe another year of health. He wasn't sure. He didn't know.

I have fallen deeply in love with this young man, Abby and want to make the rest of his life as happy as possible, but am I being fair to myself? Should I break it off now? Please help me. I am 25 and he is 29. I can't even tell my mother.

BROKENHEARTED

DEAR BROKENHEARTED: Knowing that your days are numbered (aren't everybody's) make every day more precious. You would be less than fair to yourself were you to break it off now, if indeed you could, which I doubt. In enriching his life, you will enrich your own. Pray for a miracle, and God bless.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are both 21. We've been married for nearly two years and we have one child. He joined the service out of fear of being drafted and now he's in Germany.

My question: Why do men (even married men) tell me I shouldn't think my husband is sitting in the barracks every night just thinking of me? They say he is only human and he is out for everything he can get over there. They say all the guys in the service cheat on their wives.

Abby, this upsets me terribly. Some of these men don't even know my husband so how can they pass judgment on him that way?

TRUE BLUE WIFE

DEAR WIFE: They can't. They are trying to suggest that if you want to cheat on your husband, you would be justified. Don't believe them. There are plenty of "true blue" men in the service, and your husband could be one of them.

DEAR ABBY: I did something terrible and I can't sleep nights. I wish I were a Catholic so I could go to confession.

I work in a department store which gives a discount to employees for items they purchase for themselves.

I have a relative who wanted a dress for her daughter's wedding, so I told her to come to the store, pick out a dress, and I would say I was buying it for her as a birthday gift, and I would get the discount. Then she could pay me what it cost.

She came in and picked out a dress, but when my boss rang up the sale he looked at me kind of funny, like he knew I was lying. I am not a very good liar because I don't lie often, and I am so embarrassed now because I am sure he wasn't fooled.

I'm afraid he will tell the other clerks about it, and I just hate to go to work and face them. Please tell me how to get this off my conscience.

GUILTY

DEAR GUILTY: Tell your boss you'd like to return the amount of the discount. It won't be necessary to explain future. Then you'll both feel better.

CONFIDENTIAL TO: Interested in your thoughts on the matter: I'm glad you asked. To borrow a quote from Frank Vanderlip in The Forbes Scrapbook of Thoughts on the Business of Life: "Since nothing is settled until it is settled right, no matter how unlimited power a man may have, unless he exercises it fairly and justly, his actions will return to plague him."

Nebraska's Civil Air Patrol has own flying, singing nun

SCRIBNER, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's Civil Air Patrol has a flying nun.

Sister Ann Marie (known as SAM to her fellow CAP cadets) is a captain in the CAP. She was elected camp commander for a recent two-week flight training course at Scribner Air Force Base here.

"Sister Sam" teaches physics and chemistry at an Omaha girls' school. She became interested in the CAP while teaching a radiological defense course to CAP cadets.

It was during a search and rescue mission that she decided to learn to fly. The pilot asked her if she thought she could bring their plane if something happened to him.

"I knew I could bring it down," she relates. "But if I was going to bring it down in one piece, I'd better learn to fly."

Sister Ann Marie is 53. She puts in a full day that begins in nearby Fremont, where women cadets are quartered. She drives herself and three other girls to the base each morning; that's when she goes to work. Her first duty is to march the CAP unit to the mess hall for breakfast.

The day is spent studying, flying, and monitoring the flight radio.

There is a two-hour ground school in the evening.

But Capt. Sam is most popular from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m., when the cadets get leisure time. Along with flying, she plays a good folk guitar. His first adaptation for the cadets began:

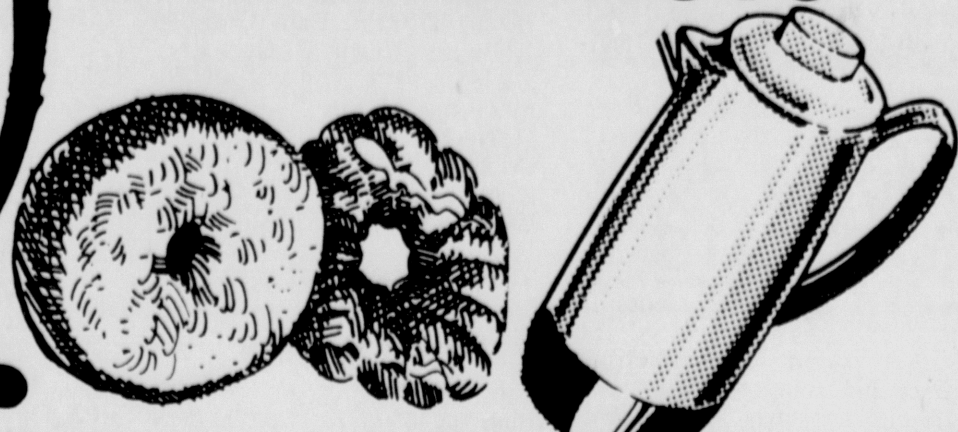

"We shall learn to fly..."

Marriage announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Malone II are announcing the marriage of their daughter Mrs. Peachy Hill, to William Dillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Dillon of Mount Sterling.

The Rev. William Bullock of McNair Presbyterian Church performed the garden ceremony Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, she wore a floor-length gown of yellow, orange and green floral silk chiffon with ruffled neckline, at the hem and on the sleeves. The gown was accented with an orange velvet ribbon at the empire waist. She also wore an heirloom pin worn by all the brides in the family for the past three generations. Her yellow elbow length veil was caught to a tiered crown of crystal and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow and orange miniature carnations and greenery.

Mrs. Jane Kerns was matron of honor for her niece. She wore a formal length gown fashioned of moss green satin with short sleeves and scoop neckline. The skirt formed a single pleat from the waist, and the gown was accented with white daisy trim on the pleat. A tailored bow at the back enhanced the waist. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

John Dillon served as best man for his brother.

The mother of the bride chose a summer knit of white ensemble with which she combined maroon accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink floral dress fashioned with long sleeves and a ruffle at the neckline.

Miss Mariann Dillon, the groom's sister, Miss Donna Daugherty and Mrs. Eugene Stephens, cousin of the bride, served as hostesses for the reception which followed. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Stephens.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside at 1105 Lakeview Ave.

For the first time this summer, the women's golf league at the Washington Country Club has a new leader.

The Eaglettes captured the top spot by scoring a 14½ to 9½ win over the Parettes in Friday's action. The Birdiettes, leaders all this summer, were defeated 15-9 by the Bogeyettes.

McCluskey man to beat

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — Roger McCluskey, the defending champion and currently one of the hottest drivers around, appeared to be the man to beat for the front row pole position in qualifying today for the Pennsylvania 500 mile stock car race.

The $60,000 event, sanctioned by the United States Auto Club, starts at 1 p.m., Sunday and the 40 fastest qualifiers will comprise the lineup.

McCluskey, 43, of Tucson, Ariz., holds the stock car qualifying record for the 2½-mile Pocono International Raceway, a unique tri-oval that has only three corners. He won the pole position last year at 148.177 miles per hour.

The Arizona rancher, a veteran of 20 years of competition in various types of racing cars, comes without a win in stock machinery this year, though he finished only 6.5 seconds behind winner A.J. Foyt in a 200-miler in Michigan two weeks ago.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Yellow Knife, driven by Richard Farrington, won the featured ninth race at Scioto Downs over Modern Yankee, and King Storm for a purse of $7,000.

Unbeaten Miami tops stars

CHICAGO (AP) — Everyone agreed that this was the year the College All-Stars had a lot of talent and a lot of coaching. But the scoreboard reflected the usual results.

"Give me this team and a franchise in Seattle and I'll take it from there," said Southern California's John McKay after his All-Stars lost to the Miami Dolphins 14-3 Friday night after out-playing them for a good portion of the game.

"I thought they played exceedingly well," said Dolphin coach Don Shula. "They were well-prepared and they were strong offensively and defensively."

Nonetheless, it was the tenth straight year the pro football champions beat the All-Stars and the series now stands at 29 for the pros, nine for the collegians and two ties.

The Dolphins took the opening kickoff and moved 60 yards for a quick score, with Larry Csonka diving over from the two. But the All-Stars took over for the middle two periods as the punting of Ray Guy of Southern Mississippi kept Miami pinned in its own territory.

Guy kicked a field goal to make it 7-3 at the half after guard Paul Howard of Brigham Young jumped offside at the six-inch line to nullify a touchdown. Then veteran Earl Morrall, inserted at quarterback for Bob Griese, ignited a drive that resulted in a seven-yard touchdown run for Csonka early in the fourth quarter.

"We didn't really put on a good performance," said Csonka. "There's no comparison with the condition you're in now and the condition you're in later in the season. They were a good team, but to be honest, we could have played a lot better."

"They certainly looked like they knew what they were doing," Shula said. "For a team that just got together, they played very well."

Shula singled out Guy, who punted nine times for an average of 44.1 yards; quarterback Bert Jones of Louisiana

State who completed 9 of 17 passes, and Charles Young, USC's tight end, who will play for the Philadelphia Eagles. "He's going to make the Eagles a great pro," Shula said.

The All-Stars, for their part, were ready for a rematch.

"Physically we were right there with them," said John Matuszak of Tampa, the number one choice in last year's draft. "They have the experience and that made the difference."

"They didn't hit any harder than they do in college," said Rich Glover of Nebraska, chosen as the nation's best collegiate lineman last year. "Give us another week now and I'd say we could beat them."

Estabrook seeks Bengal job

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Quarterback Wayne Estabrook is just another rookie who knows he doesn't have it made.

The last player drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals, the Whittier (Calif.) College graduate was taken in the 17th round, a ranking which usually holds little promise of security.

But like hundreds of other candidates who head to professional football camps each summer, Estabrook hopes to prove somebody wrong.

The strong-armed 22-year-old Estabrook passed for 5,074 yards in a brilliant college career which he capped by being named college division player of the year in Southern California.

Now he's just another number.

"All you can do is give it 100 per cent and hope," said Estabrook, who closed his career with five touchdown passes in his final game.

"You can't count on anything. I have no idea what I'll do if I don't make it. I haven't given it a thought," he said.

Estabrook said he accepted being selected last in the draft "because I didn't care what round I was taken in. I just wanted a chance."

The adjustment to the complexities of pro football is not easy, he said.

"Compared to college, it's real complicated. I study the play book every minute I can. I'm just trying to absorb everything."

"The biggest adjustment is reading the defenses and spotting the open receiver. And the pass rush is so much quicker," said Estabrook, who is battling veterans Ken Anderson, Virgil Carter and Greg Cook.

"I was surprised to find everyone so friendly. It's not exactly what I expected . . .

Shoulder forces Cook to retire

Star bids farewell to Cincy's Bengals

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — "It's hell to go out there, knowing what I once could do, and not do it. This is it."

The words came hard for Greg Cook as he bid football a final farewell Friday, on the eve of the Cincinnati Bengals first major scrimmage.

His comeback bid blunted by a shoulder weakened from three operations in as many years, Cook announced: "I have to be realistic. I can't play here the way it—the shoulder—is."

His retirement leaves three Bengals quarterbacks in camp as the team faces another week before its exhibition opener against the World Champion Miami Dolphins, who defeated the College All-Stars 14-3 Friday night.

Cook, a passing sensation in his first pro season, was the American Football League's rookie of the year in 1969. He led the club to a 4-9-1 record in its second year of existence.

"I'm like a pitcher who has lost something. My arm doesn't react like it should," he said.

Cook announced his retirement in early 1972 when his arm failed to respond, but he returned this summer. "I'll quit before I sit on the bench," he said recently.

Bengals Coach Paul Brown said Cook "made the decision himself and we accept it. He said he can't see that much of a change in his arm. He thanked me and the club for sticking with him."

The 26-year-old Cook, who set national collegiate passing records at the University of Cincinnati, was considered one of the brightest young quarterbacks on pro football until a collision with two Kansas City Chief tacklers wrecked his shoulder.

"He could have been the premier quarterback in the league," said Brown.

WCH stars nudged in district

The Washington C. H. Little League all-star suffered a heartbreaking 1-0 setback to First Dayton in 10 innings at the District 8 tournament championship game Friday night at Dayton.

The loss sidelined the Washington C. H. stars with a glittering 3-1 tournament record which included back-to-back no-hitters by Glenn Cobb and Ronnie West.

Cobb, who authored Washington C. H.'s first no-hit gem, nearly turned the trick again as he scattered a meager four hits in a dazzling nine-inning stint.

THE TEAMS were locked in a scoreless pitching duel for nine complete innings before First Dayton pushed across a run in the bottom of the 10th inning to spoil Washington C. H.'s bid.

Cobb fanned 11 batters, while walking only one in the brilliant mound stint. Little League pitchers, by rule, are permitted to pitch only six innings, except in tournament play when they are allowed to go nine innings.

Freddie Jones replaced Cobb in the 10th inning and unfortunately was tagged with the loss after surrendering only one hit.

Washington C. H.'s pitching was incredible through four tourney outings as the local boys gave up only eight hits in the four games.

Sneed locked horns with Cobb in the pitching duel and gave up four hits in nine innings before he was lifted in favor of Huston who was credited with the pitching victory.

Joe Smith cracked a pair of singles to spark the four-hit offensive effort for the Washington C. H. all-star team, managed by Charles Howard and coached by Jim Eddlemon. J. McDonald contributed a double and Cobb had a single.

Elaine Neary posts win with Lannie Babe

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Woman driver Elaine Neary registered her sixth win in the last seven starts with Lannie Babe to win the featured $2,000 mile conditional trot at Latonia Friday night by 1½ lengths.

The winner went the distance in 2:02 4-5 after sitting fourth most of the way. The victory paid $3.80, $2.80 and $2.40. Tiger Blaze returned $4.20 and $2.80 for place. Chief Dean showed at $2.80.

Leggy Lassie and Horn Piper, 6-5, paid $16.00 in the daily double.

The crowd of 1,978 wagered $127,274.

O's sweep twinbill to tighten scramble for lead in AL East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Palmer is getting closer and so are the Kansas City Royals.

Baltimore's Palmer nearly had the second no-hitter of his baseball career for the third time this season Friday night.

George Hendrick's leadoff single in the eighth inning was the only hit Cleveland managed against the Orioles' ace with Palmer pitching Baltimore to a 9-0 romp over Cleveland in the front half of a doubleheader sweep. The Birds took the second game 5-2 and moved to within 1½ games of the first place New York Yankees in the American League East.

In the west, Kansas City came from behind to tie the score in the last of the ninth inning and then pushed across the winning run on Carl Taylor's single in the 10th to beat Chicago 2-1. The victory edged the Royals to within one-half game of first place Oakland.

In other AL games Friday, the Yankees rallied twice to overtake Milwaukee 7-6, Minnesota beat operations in as many years, Cook announced: "I have to be realistic. I can't play here the way it—the shoulder—is."

Chillicothe ousts WCH

Post 25 strands 10 runners in setback

By MIKE FLYNN
Record-Herald Sports Editor

A total of 10 stranded runners spelled the doom of the Washington C.H. Post 25 American Legion baseball team Friday night in the District 7 tournament at Hillsboro's city park as always-tough Chillicothe Post 757 eked out a nerve-racking 3-2 win.

The setback ushered Washington C.H. to the sidelines of the double elimination warfare after a fine tournament showing by manager Dennis Morris' team.

IT WAS a heartbreaker for Post 25 as both teams turned in fine performances, but the key proved to be

Washington C.H.'s failure to get a clutch hit when runners were aboard. Washington C.H. had only two innings when a runner failed to reach the basepaths. It was the third win over Post 25 for Chillicothe this summer.

The teams were evenly-matched as only one run and one hit separated them. Both teams scored early and received strong performances from their relief pitchers. Both teams were flawless on defense.

The loss was the 13th in 23 summer outings for the Paul H. Hughey Post team. Post 25 has a South Central Ohio League doubleheader with Portsmouth remaining on its season schedule. Rain forced postponement of the twinbill nearly two weeks ago. Post 25 is 7-7 in the SCOL.

Washington C.H. zipped to an early 2-0 lead in the second inning, taking advantage of a fielder's choice and two hits, but Chillicothe Post 757 rebounded an inning later to erase the Post 25 lead and score what proved to be the decisive run.

Little righthander Randy Hill was credited with the pitching victory as he worked five and two-thirds innings, allowing two runs on three hits, walking six and fanning seven. But the key to Chillicothe Post 757's success was a fine relief by lefty Doug Tracy, who hurled blanks at Post 25 for three and a third innings to preserve Hill's win. Tracy allowed Post 25 only two hits during his stint and slammed the door on four scoring bids.

HOWEVER, husky Randy Reiber, who relieved Post 25 starter Jeff Green, was more effective than the Chillicothe fireman. Reiber surrendered only one hit in three innings of duty and fanned a total of five Chillicothe batters. Green pitched five innings before being jerked in favor of a pinch-hitter. During his stint, Green gave up three runs on five hits, walked four and whiffed the same number.

Post 25's scoring spurt started after Randy Rodgers had reached base on a fielder's choice. Alan Coppock slammed a double to leftfield to plate Rodgers and Coppock scored moments later on a single by Mark Johnson.

Chillicothe erased the two-run lead following walks to Hill and Rich Beverly and a single by John Shoemaker. A single by first-sacker Steve Chester plated Shoemaker for the winning run.

Johnson and Coppock sparked the five-hit effort for Post 25. Johnson had a run-producing single and a stolen base in three official appearances while Coppock had a double and a run-batted-in. Steve Haines, Tony Grooms and Larry Rodgers added singles.

Bryan Dailey's three hits in four trips were tops for Post 757, but none figured in on the third inning scoring spree.

Green, Fezler share honors

MONTREAL (AP) — Hubert Green admitted he was a little surprised to be sharing the lead. Forrest Fezler didn't say anything, but looked puzzled about all the attention he was getting.

The two long shots managed 71s, just one under par, but it was good enough to stand up for the second round lead Friday in the $175,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament as gusty winds and a wet and soggy course sent some of the game's great names packing.

"The wind was stronger, the grass was higher. The sand was deeper. The water was colder. I just had a helluva day," summarized first round leader Hale Irwin, who blew 10 strokes higher in the windblown second round.

Green, the current Tallahassee Open champ, and the youthful Fezler made the best of the adverse conditions with 138 totals, six under par on the 6,905-yard Richelieu Valley Golf Club course.

Mud-spattered Bobby Mitchell, who had to stand in casual water for his second shot and in a creek for his third, had the lead until he made triple-bogey seven on the troublesome 18th hole and finished with a 70—139.

Then came Irwin, who went from a 65 to 75 and a tie at 140 with British Open champion Tom Weiskopf. Weiskopf had a 73 and said "I just played bad."

Bernie Carbo, but he dropped it as he hit the fence.

St. Louis, which retained its 1½-game lead over the Cubs in the East Division despite the defeat, took a 1-0 lead against Seaver, 12-5, in the first inning. John Milner's 15th home run in the fifth tied the score.

A two-run homer by Richie Zisk and two-run singles by Al Oliver and Manny Sanguillen highlighted a 21-hit Pirate attack against the slumping Cubs.

The Cubs, who led the division from May 9-July 22, have lost 17 of their 23 games this month.

Roger Metzger's two-out triple capped a three-run fifth inning as Houston came from behind to cut the Dodgers' lead in the NL West to five games over the Reds.

Dave Roberts' tie-breaking single off Juan Marichal highlighted a two-run sixth inning that enabled the Padres to end a seven-game losing streak and snap the Giants' six-game winning streak. Bill Greif hurled a five-hitter.

Roberts also started a three-run ninth-inning with a single.

Mike Jorgensen's two-run triple capped a three-run ninth-inning rally for Montreal.

ED SPRAGUE

Reds obtain Crosby for Ed Sprague

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds obtained St. Louis Cardinal infielder Ed Crosby Friday, five days after losing shortstop Dave Concepcion for the remainder of the season.

"We got him mainly for protection at shortstop," said Reds' Manager Sparky Anderson.

The Reds traded relief pitcher Ed Sprague, 1-3, and a Class AAA player to be named later in exchange for Gene Dusan, a minor league catcher. Crosby is scheduled to join the Reds today in San Diego while Dusan has been assigned to the Reds' Indianapolis farm team.

A 6-2, 180-pounder, Crosby was the regular shortstop for St. Louis at the beginning of the 1972 season but this year has been used mostly as a pinch hitter, hitting .128.

Cleveland Browns release Don Madden

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns cut their preseason squad to 66 by releasing another running back as the team girded for its second scrimmage of the year today.

The Browns released rookie Don Madden, 25, of Fenton, Mich., on waivers Friday. Madden attended college at Eastern Michigan University.

Quiet explosion wins River Downs race

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Quiet Explosion caught fire in the stretch and won Friday's featured $2,600 eighth race at River Downs by a neck.

The six-furlong race was run in 1:10 4-5 of a second on a fast track.

He paid $14.60, $4.80 and $3.00. Red Bone, the second place finisher, paid $2.80 and $2.20. Third place Blue Charger returned $2.80.

Let's tour Ohio

Akron area appealing

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of short tours of Ohio travel attractions prepared by the Fayette County Automobile Club for The Record-Herald.

Akron never "tires" of being referred to as the "Rubber Capital of the World." The Northeast Ohio city has many appealing factors for tourists and is the suggested AAA tour this week.

Stan Hywet (which means stone hewn) Hall is considered one of the finest examples of English Tudor architecture in the United States. Built in 1911-1915 by Frank A. Seiberling, founder of Goodyear and Seiberling rubber companies, this 65-room manor house has 33 rooms, open to visitors during the guided tour. Furnishings are antiques and art treasures dating from the 14th to 18th centuries.

A rose garden, sunken English walled garden and Japanese garden lines the beautiful grounds of Stan Hywet.

OTHER NEARBY attractions are the Perkins Mansion, built in 1931 by Gen. Simon Perkins, founder of Akron, and the John Brown House in which abolitionist John Brown lived for two years.

Almost all the animals of the 10-acre Akron Children's Zoo can be handled and wander freely over the grounds. Johnathon Hale Homestead, the oldest brick home in the area, contains a fine museum.

BLOSSOM MUSIC CENTER, located nearby, is the summer home for the Cleveland orchestra. The $6.6 million pavilion, acclaimed an architectural success because of perfect acoustics and unobstructed sightlines, seats 4,600 under cover and an additional 10,000 on the lawns.

Railways of American museum, off Ohio Route 8, contains a working model electric railroad with more than 1,000 cars, some dating back to 1830.

Akron has a rich sports background, annually hosting the professional golfer's tour, the "World Series of Golf," the professional bowler's tournament — the Firestone Tournament of Champions. The Rubber Capital is home both for professional men's and women's bowling associations.

AAA suggests this routing to the tour area: From Washington C. H., take I-71 north to Ohio 224 and I-76 east to Akron and on north to the rest of the touring area.

Red Cross joins fight on disease

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The International Red Cross will join the Brazilian government in a program to inoculate primitive Amazon Indians against smallpox, measles, malaria and tuberculosis.

The program will cost $5 million and will involve 80,000 Indians under the jurisdiction of the government's Indian agency.

The International Red Cross will finance and staff three working teams using two boats and one plane starting in the western Amazon region.

"We don't even know how many Indians actually live in the area," said Gen. Jeronimo Bandeira de Mello, president of the Indian agency. "And the Indians that we do know live in tiny scattered groups of four to five families, often a eight-hour river trip apart."

The foreign Red Cross personnel will train for three weeks under the agency's supervision before beginning work.

"They have to learn about the Indians," said Bandeira de Mello. "The Indians, for instance, love injections and hate pills."

Actor Tony Curtis, whose real name is Bernard Schwartz, was born in New York June 3, 1925.

Marijuana case hearings slated

Hearing date for two Fayette County men charged with possession of marijuana following a July 15, raid on their Bush Road home by sheriff's deputies has been set for Aug. 20 at 1 p.m.

The two, Jay Gordon, 21, and James Baugh III, 21, were freed on $1,000 bond shortly after they were arrested.

Sheriff's deputies said there were seven persons including three juveniles in the house when they entered just after midnight.

No charges were filed against the others present.

Boost in milk price too small, farmers feel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some Ohio farmers aren't happy about the recently-announced hike in the price of milk, according to the manager of the Columbus division of Central Ohio Co-operative Milk Producers, Inc.

Robert Moran said Thursday, "Some don't think it will be enough to keep them in business... and with the weather and all. They can't get enough hay to feed their cows."

The co-operative Thursday announced that milk companies would pay producers an additional one cent per quart as a result of the lifting of the federal price freeze on food.

Moran said the payment increase, scheduled to go into effect July 30, would probably be felt by the consumer immediately. Three major milk producers in Ohio indicated milk prices would rise about two cents per quart in stores.

Cary Grant's real name is Archibald A. Leach. He was born in Bristol, England, Jan. 18, 1904.

Opening lead - nine of clubs.

Dear Mr. Becker: Most players don't grasp the psychological factors of the game. I know what I'm talking about because I've been playing in the same rubber bridge game for many years, and I am far and away the biggest winner in the game.

It's not because I play better than the others - it's because I have a big edge over them in psychology. For instance, I won a 3,300-point rubber the other night - the very first one we played. My partner and I didn't have the cards to warrant such a mammoth win, and actually we should have lost on the rubber.

It was the psychology that did it, and it was this hand that got us off to a flying start. I got to five spades and West led his singleton club.

I won with the king, led the ten of spades, and finessed. West took the king and made the good play of a low heart in order to get a club ruff.

East started to steam inwardly when he saw the heart lead because he wanted a club return also. An when he put on the ten of hearts, it held the trick - because I discarded a diamond!

Discarding a diamond was a key play, and if you don't understand why, Mr. Becker, you're missing the point completely. East laid down the ace of diamonds, which now made West very angry over East's failure to return a club. I ruffed and claimed the balance, making five.

You never heard such an uproar as now took place as they berated each other bitterly for failing to return a club. Neither of them had noticed my seven-card suit. From this point on, they were each so upset that they couldn't do anything right - and all this was brought about by my brilliant diamond discard. Cordially yours, John Q. Dough.

Knee Clicks May Aid Science

Noisy, clicking sounds from various joints of the body, especially the knees, were always considered a symphonic nuisance.

Now, a group of scientists at the University of Akron in Ohio believe that some of these noises may, if correctly interpreted, be useful in the diagnosis of disease, disorder, and changes within the joints.

Dr. Mamerto Chu and his co-workers have been studying electrical patterns made by the clicking noises and are coming to some interesting conclusions.

Even at this early date, they believe that the translation of the orchestrated sounds could indicate underlying disease which can be recognized early and thereby treated more effectively.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye!

The ureter is a tiny tube that leads from the kidney and carries urine into the bladder. In some cases of cancer, it becomes necessary to cut this ureter and bypass the urinary flow into an artificial bladder outside the body. This is cumbersome and distressing to the patient.

Dr. Andre Stern of the Saint-Antoine Hospital in France is now using an artificial ureter made of silicone. This is implanted into the patient's own bladder and effectively eliminates the need for the external device.

In the series of cases treated in this manner by Dr. Stern, the results have been excellent. With improvements in the surgical technique, it is thought that many patients will be markedly benefited and freed from the psychological and physical burden of the method now in use.

Viruses have resisted many chemicals designed to destroy them. Antibiotics, so effective against many bacteria, have not proved of any value in their attack against viruses.

At the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., a new drug known as Poly I:C is being used in an effort to find that elusive method of killing viruses.

Dr. William A. Carter is using this drug with recognizable success. He believes, however, that the greatest unfavorable factor is the fact that it is still exceedingly toxic in experimental animals.

By past experience, it is known that toxicity in drugs, when carefully studied, can usually be eliminated. His experimentation will be viewed with great interest.

The American people should know that the Roswell Park Institute stands out as one of the most significant international institutions because of the wide horizons they have opened for the control and cure of cancer, viral infection, and other devastating conditions.

Skylab mission gets under way

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Three American astronauts rocketed into orbit today to start man's longest planned space journey, a 59-day study of the sun, stars, earth and man from aboard the Skylab space station.

"We're really moving out," commander Alan L. Bean reported as the astronauts' Apollo ferry ship sped into an orbit ranging from about 94 to 140 miles high.

Bean, 41, Dr. Owen K. Garriott, 42, and Jack R. Lousma, 37, immediately began a 17,100-mile-an-hour pursuit of the unmanned 85-ton laboratory, which passed over Cape Kennedy just minutes before they started the marathon space adventure.

By the time they reached orbit, the station was 2,500 miles ahead.

With Bean at the controls, the Apollo was to be steered through a series of rocket-firing maneuvers to gradually close in on the Skylab, which is the size of a three-bedroom house.

Linkup of the two space vehicles was scheduled for 3:41 p.m. EDT, 271 miles above the Pacific.

Once aboard the Skylab, Navy Capt. Bean, solar physicist Garriott and Marine Maj. Lousma hope to more than double the 28-day space flight record set last month by the Skylab 1 crew, whose efforts saved the damaged station.

The mission will be the most rigorous test yet of man's ability to withstand the physical and psychological stresses of prolonged space travel. The medical results will have a bearing on whether astronauts one day will embark on long voyages to other planets.

The spacemen started the trip on the power of a 22-storytall Saturn 1B rocket that thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on time at 7:11 a.m.

Thousands of persons in the area watched the fiery liftoff, but the rocket quickly vanished in low-hanging clouds 34 seconds after it left the pad.

Ten minutes later, Mission Control told the astronauts they were in a good orbit.

"Tell the guys at KSC thanks, it was a nice, nice job," Bean told the control center, referring to the Kennedy Space Center launch team.

As the rocket darted away from the Cape and over the Atlantic Ocean, the commander reported: "You really get a feeling of motion up here. We're really moving."

"I sure would like to try that liftoff

again," Lousma said. "That was great."

Once in orbit, the astronauts separated the Apollo from the burned-out third stage and turned around to take a look at it.

"We've got this baby right in front of us and it is beautiful," Bean said.

Oklahoma prison riot fatal to 2

MCALISTER, Okla. (AP) — Police and National Guard troops appeared ready to fight their way if necessary into the riot-torn Oklahoma State Prison today, where rebellious convicts still held 19 hostages.

Two inmates were killed during 14 hours of rioting Friday, and at least a dozen buildings were destroyed by fires set by the insurgents, prison officials said. Two guards suffered stab wounds.

A prison doctor said one of the dead inmates apparently had been stabbed to death by fellow prisoners. It was not known how the other was killed. His body was still lying in a prison yard under the control of the rioters.

The physician, Dr. Rafael Cott, said he treated 12 other prisoners for injuries but had not been allowed to examine the hostages.

Of the number of prisoners involved in the riot, Associate Warden Paul Graham told newsmen Friday night, "We believe there are no more than 250 of them, but there could be as many as 1,000."

Two of 21 original hostages, both guards, were released, apparently because they suffered heart conditions, Graham said.

He said a list of demands issued by the convicts apparently asked for changes that were only recently instituted.

Gov. David Hall sent word to the convicts he would not meet with them until all hostages were released and the inmates returned to their cells.

Graham said officials had a plan ready to fight into the prison if the hostages' lives appeared to be in danger. He would not disclose details. The convicts apparently have no guns.

Graham said officers encircling the prison and those inside the walls were under orders to shoot only under "extreme circumstances."

He said some of the prison's 1,750 inmates were moved to local jails.

Corrections Department officials continued to talk with the barricaded convicts periodically into the night.

The facility was ringed by officers and by National Guard military police in battle gear. Joining prison guards and the MPs were state highway patrol officers and police from McAlester.

The riot, the worst in the prison's history, began at midafternoon Friday when five unarmed inmates attacked two guards, Lt. Thomas Payne and Capt. C.C. Smith, in the mess hall, Graham said.

Graham said both Payne and Smith received knife wounds and were hospitalized. He said the attackers were "doped up on something."

'Dirt' proper campaign issue, Ehrlichman says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political campaigns may focus on more than the candidates' views on issues, according to John D. Ehrlichman.

Drinking problems, sexual habits and domestic situations also are valid campaign subjects, President Nixon's former chief domestic adviser told the Senate Watergate committee Friday.

"I know of my own knowledge of incumbents in office who are not discharging their obligations to their constituents because of their drinking habits," he said.

"Constituents at home have no way of knowing that you can go over here in the gallery of Congress and watch a member totter onto the floor in a condition of at least partial inebriation which would preclude him making any sort of sober judgment on the issues that confront this country."

Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., questioning Ehrlichman, asked:

"Do you really want to bring the political system of the United States, of our campaigns, down to the level which you are talking about right now?"

Ehrlichman answered: "I know in your situation your lifestyle undoubtedly is impeccable and there wouldn't be anything at issue like that."

"Maybe my standards are all haywire, that everybody in the Congress ought to be immune from scrutiny on that subject, but that seems to me to be an indefensible position on your part," the former White House aide said.

Weicker and Ehrlichman squared off (Please turn to Page 12)

Junior beef sale sets records

More Fayette County Junior Fair Livestock Sale records fell Friday night as Scott Jenks' grand champion steer sold for $150 a pound to Jeff Royal Blue and the Fayette County Bank.

The price was 15 cents a pound over last year's record. Records were also set Wednesday and Thursday night at the swine and lamb sales.

Belinda Melton's reserve grand champion steer sold for $1.25 a pound to Sohigro of Sabina, Sedalia and Atlanta. This also was a new record, up 42 cents a pound from last year's record price.

The champion steer weighed 1,200 lbs. and sold for a total bid of $1,800. The reserve champion weighed 1,155 and sold for $1,443.74.

Marting Manufacturing Co., paid $3.75 a pound for a 321 lb. side of beef from the grand champion carcass shown by Arthur Schlichter. This new record was $2.15 a pound over last year's record.

The average price paid for the 77 steers was $72.05 cwt. compared with last year's $58.33 cwt. The steer sale totaled $56,464.20 which included the carcass sale.

MELISSA MARK'S 1,050 lb. champion crossbred steer was purchased by Marting Manufacturing for 95 cents a pound. The champion Shorthorn, shown by Jane Ann Kiger, was purchased by Roller Haven for 74 cents a pound. The Shorthorn weighed 990 lbs.

Junior Parks' 1,125 lb. champion Hereford was sold to Pennington Bread Inc. for 72 cents a pound.

The reserve champion Charolais steer, exhibited by Luanne Cornell and weighing 1,210 lbs., was purchased by Champaign Livestock, Urbana, for 85 cents a pound. Bobby Cottrill's 1,035 lb. reserve champion Angus was sold to Frisch's Big Boy for 80 cents a pound. Champaign Livestock also purchased the reserve champion crossbred steer for 82 cents a pound. The crossbred was shown by Dawn Schlichter and weighed 1,050 lbs.

Fair ends tonight

Another record-breaking steer sale and a thrilling auto demolition derby highlighted the Fayette County Fair Friday as judging activity came to an end.

Scott Jenks' grand champion steer, a 1,200-pound Charolais, was sold to Royal Blue Market, Jeffersonville, and the Fayette County Bank for a record $150 cwt.

The champion beef carcass brought one of the outstanding prices of the week. Marting Manufacturing paid a record $375 cwt. for the carcass, cut out of a steer raised by Art Schlichter. Last year's champion carcass brought $160 cwt.

The reserve champion brought a record $125 cwt., with Sohigro Service Co. making the purchase of Belinda Melton's Angus steer.

In all, 77 steers were sold at an average price of $72.05 cwt.

Brothers W. L. (Lucky) and Larry Webb, of London and Orient, battled to a dead heat in the final heat of the auto demolition derby, earning $100 each.

A LARGE CROWD of 2,342 watched the demolition derby's three elimination heats and the final.

The final was a long, hard-fought affair, with the Webbs the only survivors. They were unable to put each other out of commission and agreed to call it a draw. The trophy contributed by Roney Auto Parts, went to Larry by mutual consent. The Webbs have been successful in demolition derbies here in the past.

The first heat was won by John Seitz, Bloomingburg, with Robert Seaman, Leesburg, second, and Fred Miles, 7022 Creek Rd., third.

Lucky Webb was first and Larry Webb second in the second heat, with Leonard Collins, Rt. 2, third. Lucky Webb was in the heat only because one of those scheduled to drive was unable to make it, and Webb was on the alternates list.

The third heat was won by David Grubb, U.S. 35-S, with James Delong, Newport, second, and Frank Wood, Jr., New Holland, third.

Heat winners received $25 and trophies from Warner's Arco. Second place in the preliminary heats was worth $15 and third was worth $10.

Another demolition derby, with 45 different drivers, is set for 8 p.m. Saturday.

AS USUAL, Friday's crowd surpassed those of other days this week. The paid attendance was 4,512, bringing the Fair's total attendance to 17,492, which is 1,929 fewer than attended the first six days of last year's Fair.

Malcolm Bloomer, Eddie Kirk, Frank Weade and J. W. Sears were all re-elected to three-year terms on the Fair Board in an election conducted Friday. They were unopposed.

John Schlichter's 1,025 lb. reserve champion Shorthorn was purchased by Marting Manufacturing for 79 cents a pound, and the 1,035 reserve champion Hereford, exhibited by Terry Anderson, was purchased by Kaufman Clothing for 71 cents a pound.

The list of other steers sold on Friday will appear in Monday's Record-Herald.

Beth Jenks and Karen Kiger were selected to represent Fayette County in the Ohio State Fair horse show after the completion of the 4-H saddle horse and pony show. The show was stopped by rain Wednesday.

Open class sheep and beef were judged Friday, bringing to an end the livestock judging.

The Junior Fair awards roundup is set for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, with the demolition derby at 8 p.m. the last event on the 1973 Fair calendar.

175 attend services for murder victim

Mark B. Matson, 16, of 138 Laurel Rd., whose body was found a week ago cemented into a block of concrete in a Dade County, Fla., home, was buried Friday in Washington Cemetery following services in the Church of Christ in Christian Union.

More than 175 friends, relatives and classmates attended the services where the Rev. Robert Kline recalled a statement by a Dade County detective who said Mark died like a man, trying to resist what he thought was wrong.

A half hour of organ music by David Puckett preceded the start of the services when Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Matson; his brothers, Michael, 20, and Bruce, 11, and about 25 other family members formed a procession to the front of the church where the youth's casket stood, surrounded by at least 25 large baskets of flowers. A large spray of red roses covered the closed casket and an 8 x 10 photograph of the young man hung from the pulpit behind the casket.

During the service, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Streitenberger presented a vocal duet.

Pallbearers were Doug Matson,

Beef supply tightens across Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Food store owners and managers and meat processors in some parts of Ohio say that customers are demanding more beef, but that the beef market appears to be tightening.

The Kroger Co. and Heinen's Inc. in Cleveland said their warehouses are empty and that some stores are already out of beef. Other supermarket chains in the Cleveland area estimated that they have enough beef to last through the week.

Some Northeastern Ohio meat cutters said they have been notified by supermarkets that there will be cut-backs in working hours and layoffs next week if the situation gets worse.

A Cleveland meat wholesaler said farmers are carrying on their own boycott against those who boycotted meat in April.

"The boycotters last spring made the packers and farmers look silly and now the farmers are getting even. The end product will be higher prices for their products."

Beef sales in Cleveland were brisk amid rumors of a shortage.

"Business is usually slow the last week of the month, said Eagle Supermarkets President Joseph Sirna. "But this week it's just as good as the first week when people usually have the money."

The Akron Packing Co. in Richfield normally handles 1.3 million pounds of beef a week. The company said Friday that it will close Monday and reopen when cattle become available. The firm employs 125.

A spokesman for the Kroger Co. in Cincinnati said the beef shortage is real.

"I certainly anticipate shortages next week and the week after," said Manly Mulpus, spokesman for the firm.

Customers also are buying beef in greater quantities in the Cincinnati area.

"It's a panic buying," said Ray Reuss, owner of Greenhills Food Storage Locker. "Customer are no longer worried about the price, they just want a side of beef for their freezer. They're running scared."

Reuss said he normally sells about 25 sides of beef a week, but now has a waiting list of 250 orders.

Ron Enderle, co-owner of Enderle's Meats, said his firm is "booked up into September with orders for beef sides."

"We've turned away about 20 orders for sides of beef this week," Enderle said. He noted that the store normally sells one side or less a week.

Jerry Burger, one of the owners of the Family Beef Club in the Queen City, said his store has been able to fill its orders.

"I don't feel we will have to turn anyone away," he said. "The cattle will be higher priced, but I still think we will be able to fill our orders."

Two A&P store managers in Columbus said their meat supplies and sales have been about average.

Store managers at Big Bear and Kroger stores in Columbus also reported average sales.

Q. — About three years ago, when we bought our present house, the previous owner told me that he had never put a finish of any kind on the knotty pine walls in our family room.

The walls seemed all right then, but now they appear to have a considerable amount of dirt on them. I would like to finish them with shellac as I did a similar room some years ago in another house, but I would like to ask your advice about the best way to get the dirt off.

A. — The best cleansing agent for the walls, since you are going to finish them with shellac, is denatured alcohol. Use a clean cloth saturated with the alcohol and rub as much as is needed to remove the dirt. Change cloths when the one you are using gets dirty.

Be sure to dilute the shallac before applying it to the walls. Use 50 per cent shallac and 50 per cent denatured alcohol. Even white or clear shallac will darken the wood somewhat. If you want a more pronounced color, use orange shallac.

Q. — I know that it is important to mix the right amount of water with sand and gravel to make concrete.

Since the amount of water depends on whether the sand is wet or dry, I would like to know the difference between damp sand and wet sand. Sometimes one is mentioned, sometimes the other.

A. — To determine just how wet sand is, pick up a handful of it, then open your hand and let go of it. If the sand felt wet but your hand was dry after you released it, then it generally is classified as damp.

If the sand felt wet and it left your hand wet after you let go of it, then it is considered wet sand.

Q. — I have to do some painting around our farm. Is it safe to use aluminum paint on such things as feed bins and water troughs or is there a possibility that it might poison the animals if they happen to chew on it?

A. — Aluminum paint is usually lead-free and its pigment is nontoxic. But since there is always the possibility of a formula that is not safe for your purpose, read the label carefully to be sure the paint does not contain either lead or mercury.

Rites for Eddie Rickenbacker held; aviation hero eulogized

KEY BISCAIYNE, Fla. (AP) — Friends remember Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker as "America's Ace of Aces" and the man who built "a struggling onehangar air carrier into an aviation giant."

More than 500 persons crowded into the Key Biscayne Presbyterian Church Friday for the memorial services for the aviation hero.

Rickenbacker died Monday in a Zurich, Switzerland, hospital of heart failure. He was 82. His body was cremated and the ashes will be buried later in the family plot in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio.

"In the cockpits and shops, Captain Eddie was always there. The people of Eastern Airlines knew they were living, close-at-hand with a great man," said Floyd Hall, chairman of the board of Eastern Airlines, which Rickenbacker headed for 28 years.

Adelaide Rickenbacker, his wife of 43 years, did not attend the services because of ill health, but Rickenbacker's two sons, David of Upper Montclair, N.J., and William of Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. were present.

Other mourners included Rickenbacker's personal secretary for more than 50 years, Marguerite Shepherd, and top officials of Eastern.

Dr. John Huffman, pastor of the Key Biscayne church where President Nixon also worships, said the nation honored Rickenbacker "as an unlettered factory worker who, by self-determination and creative imagination, commanded honorary degrees from fifteen universities."

High asbestos fiber count noted in Lake Superior water

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Asbestos fibers are flowing from taps in all Minnesota and Wisconsin communities which draw water from Lake Superior, a federal agency reports.

The highest concentration was at Two Harbors, where the count was 2.6 million asbestos fibers per liter. That compares with 1.9 million at Beaver Bay and 948,000 at Duluth, said Dr. Warren Muri, staff member of the federal Council on Environmental Quality which made the study.

Muir said researchers used 450-power optical microscopes which detected fibers down to 5 microns in length. He said larger counts probably would be obtained with more powerful microscopes.

In a report released on Wednesday, the council also said drinking water drawn at Superior, Wis., from deep wells under the lake showed 82,000 asbestos fibers per liter.

The report said the concentration of asbestos fibers at Silver Bay, a community near Beaver Bay, was 296,000 per liter. Silver Bay is the home of Reserve Mining Co. Reserve's taconite plant has been cited by the federal Environmental Protection Agency as the prime source of asbestos fibers in the lake.

The Council on Environmental Quality study and others by various state and federal agencies began when the EPA announced in mid June that it had found asbestos fibers in the water supplies of Duluth and three other communities on Lake Superior.

Medical studies have linked airborne asbestos fibers to cancer. Studies are under way to determine if there is a health hazard when waterborne fibers are ingested.

Grand Marais, about 60 miles east of Silver Bay, showed a fiber count of 20,000, Muir reported. He said the concentration in Ashland, Wis., about 70 miles east of Superior, was only 15,000 fibers per liter.

Kroger contract talks to resume again Monday

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Talks between Krogers and striking Teamsters will resume Monday in the attempt to end the week long strike that has closed 33 area stores, a Kroger spokesman said.

In the only development Friday, the company succeeded in obtaining a restraining order against a work stoppage by the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers, striking in sympathy with the Teamsters.

Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge William Morrissey said the firemen's contract prohibits the stoppage.

The strike began Sunday when 191 members of Teamsters Local 100 went out, demanding higher wages and better benefits.

Shape up the IRS

The new commissioner of internal revenue, Donald C. Alexander, is quite right in his conclusion that "maintaining public confidence in this agency" must be one of his most important concerns. He and his associates will have to take a prior step first, however; before they can maintain confidence in the IRS, they must restore it.

This is said not solely in reference to current allegations about use of the IRS machinery to harass so-called "enemies" of those in power. The IRS also has other things to answer for, activities which fall under the general heading of going easy on wealthy tax loopholers while being tough on smaller fry.

Tough tax inequities are more the fault of Congress than of the Internal Revenue Service, but the latter cannot shrug off responsibility for how it implements the law. Alexander's undertaking to firm up the agency and make it do what it is supposed to do — and nothing else — is a big task in which we wish him well.

Nixon's economics: a shambles

The Greeks had a word for it — it being what the Nixon Administration conspicuously lacks. The word was "telos," which meant both purpose and limits.

The more one waits and watches, the more he becomes convinced that never in modern history has the Executive Branch been occupied by such an ideologically aimless and practically unscrupulous crew.

Take economic policy, for example, where you have visions of Mr. Nixon in July 1975, announcing Phase XVI of his "plan." To any rational observer, be he liberal, conservative or Parsee, the handling of the economy has been a shambles, a series of ad-hoc decisions often internally inconsistent. Words have lost their meaning; in the name of the free market, Mr. Nixon had imposed controls.

Then there is the Cambodian bombing.

Skipping the constitutional question of the President's right to bomb, let us ask the more fundamental question: Why? The answer, presumably, is to keep the Communists from defeating the government.

Now I don't want to see the Communists take over Cambodia, but the nasty fact is that there is no government. Lon Nol, if not clinically insane, is at least totally incompetent. He can't "hack it" (as they say around the White House), but he has sufficient power to prevent other, more competent men from trying.

One of the things I learned at my father's knee was that you can't win a race without a horse. In Cambodia we have no horse. So why bomb? Presumably because there is nothing else to do.

IN APRIL, 1965, I criticized the Johnson Administration's decision to launch the sustained bombing of North Vietnam (I was always a critic of the bombing strategy) and suggested that it was motivated in part by our frustrations in Saigon. I quoted Edmund Burke's critique of Lord North's government, that is was seized "by a general notion that some act of power was become necessary."

We could hardly bomb Saigon, I added, "so the planes went North." The bombing of Cambodia seems to me a purposeless display of firepower, sustained by "a general notion" that we have to do something.

Similarly, how can one rationalize all this mad bugging? Right now the press is surfing on a wave of pious indignation which I refuse to join. President Johnson recorded some meetings (as I noted here recently) and he would have been a fool not to. I took it for granted that his predecessors did the same and evidence from the Kennedy archives supports this hypothesis.

President Johnson also had crucial phone calls monitored, both for the record and — perhaps more importantly — because he was quite deaf and too proud to use a hearing aid. He could say "I'll get back to you," and then go over the transcript with Marie Fehmer to be certain about the precise matters at stake.

This, I submit, was — to return to the Greek — teleological bugging — it was done with a rational purpose and under limited, carefully defined circumstances. To move to another context, if the President said to me "Call Bill Bundy and tell him I want him to background Mel Eflin on the secret negotiations in Paris," I knew perfectly well that Bundy's secretary was transcribing the conversation and he knew that my secretary was doing the same thing. It was protection for us both.

CONTRAST THIS with the permanent, floating bug that Mr. Nixon apparently wore like a tie-clip. What was the point of it all? If we were not discussing the top echelon of the government of the United States, the whole business would be preposterous. But it is part of the same aimless pattern.

The lack of any sense of limits was crisply stated by former Attorney General John Mitchell when he was interrogated by the Ervin Committee. When Sen. Talmadge asked if he really thought it was more important to reelect Nixon than to break the news of Watergate to the President, and presumably open it up, Mitchell replied impassively, "You put it exactly correctly."

The Greeks had a word for this too: "hubris," which was inevitably followed by "nemesis."

Nebraska's Civil Air Patrol has own flying, singing nun

SCRIBNER, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's Civil Air Patrol has a flying nun.

Sister Ann Marie (known as SAM to her fellow CAP cadets) is a captain in the CAP. She was elected camp commander for a recent two-week flight training course at Scribner Air Force Base here.

"Sister Sam" teaches physics and chemistry at an Omaha girls' school. She became interested in the CAP while teaching a radiological defense course to CAP cadets.

It was during a search and rescue mission that she decided to learn to fly. The pilot asked her if she thought she could bring their plane if something happened to him.

"I knew I could bring it down," she relates. "But if I was going to bring it down in one piece, I'd better learn to fly."

Sister Ann Marie is 53.

She puts in a full day that begins in nearby Fremont, where women cadets are quartered. She drives herself and three other girls to the base each morning; that's when she goes to work. Her first duty is to march the CAP unit to the mess hall for breakfast.

The day is spent studying, flying, and monitoring the flight radio.

There is a two-hour ground school in the evening.

But Capt. Sam is most popular from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m., when the cadets get leisure time. Along with flying, she plays a good folk guitar. His first adaptation for the cadets began:

"We shall learn to fly..."

Marriage announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Malone II are announcing the marriage of their daughter Mrs. Peachy Hill, to William Dillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Dillon of Mount Sterling.

The Rev. William Bullock of McNair Presbyterian Church performed the garden ceremony Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, she wore a floor-length gown of yellow, orange and green floral silk chiffon with ruffled neckline, at the hem and on the sleeves. The gown was accented with an orange velvet ribbon at the empire waist. She also wore an heirloom pin worn by all the brides in the family for the past three generations. Her yellow elbow length veil was caught to a tiered crown of crystal and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow and orange miniature carnations and greenery.

Mrs. Jane Kerns was matron of honor for her niece. She wore a formal length gown fashioned of moss green satin with short sleeves and scoop neckline. The skirt formed a single pleat from the waist, and the gown was accented with white daisy trim on the pleat. A tailored bow at the back enhanced the waist. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

John Dillon served as best man for his brother.

The mother of the bride chose a summer knit of white ensemble with which she combined maroon accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink floral dress fashioned with long sleeves and a ruffle at the neckline.

Miss Mariann Dillon, the groom's sister, Miss Donna Daugherty and Mrs. Eugene Stephens, cousin of the bride, served as hostesses for the reception which followed. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Stephens.

In Friday's action, the Yankees, behind a 44 from Irwin Reeves, downed the Cubs by an 11½ to 8½ score; the Pirates defeated the Mets as Jim Conley carded a 41, and Frank Reno turned in a 41 as the Dodgers topped the Reds by a 12½ to 7½ score.

McCluskey man to beat

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — Roger McCluskey, the defending champion and currently one of the hottest drivers around, appeared to be the man to beat for the front row pole position in qualifying today for the Pennsylvania 500 mile stock car race.

The $60,000 event, sanctioned by the United States Auto Club, starts at 1 p.m., Sunday and the 40 fastest qualifiers will comprise the lineup.

McCluskey, 43, of Tuscon, Ariz., holds the stock car qualifying record for the 2½-mile Pocono International Raceway, a unique tri-oval that has only three corners. He won the pole position last year at 148.177 miles per hour.

The Arizona rancher, a veteran of 20 years of competition in various types of racing cars, comes without a win in stock machinery this year, though he finished only 6.5 seconds behind winner A.J. Foyt in a 200-miler in Michigan two weeks ago.

Unbeaten Miami tops stars

CHICAGO (AP) — Everyone agreed that this was the year the College All-Stars had a lot of talent and a lot of coaching. But the scoreboard reflected the usual results.

"Give me this team and a franchise in Seattle and I'll take it from there," said Southern California's John McKay after his All-Stars lost to the Miami Dolphins 14-3 Friday night after out-playing them for a good portion of the game.

"I thought they played exceedingly well," said Dolphin coach Don Shula. "They were well-prepared and they were strong offensively and defensively."

Nonetheless, it was the tenth straight year the pro football champions beat the All-Stars and the series now stands at 29 for the pros, nine for the collegians and two ties.

The Dolphins took the opening kickoff and moved 60 yards for a quick score, with Larry Csonka diving over from the two. But the All-Stars took over for the middle two periods as the punting of Ray Guy of Southern Mississippi kept Miami pinned in its own territory.

Guy kicked a field goal to make it 7-3 at the half after guard Paul Howard of Brigham Young jumped offside at the six-inch line to nullify a touchdown. Then veteran Earl Morrall, inserted at quarterback for Bob Griese, ignited a drive that resulted in a seven-yard touchdown run for Csonka early in the fourth quarter.

"We didn't really put on a good performance," said Csonka. "There's no comparison with the condition you're in now and the condition you're in later in the season. They were a good team, but to be honest, we could have played a lot better."

"They certainly looked like they knew what they were doing," Shula said. "For a team that just got together, they played very well."

Shula singled out Guy, who punted nine times for an average of 44.1 yards; quarterback Bert Jones of Louisiana

State who completed 9 of 17 passes, and Charles Young, USC's tight end, who will play for the Philadelphia Eagles. "He's going to make the Eagles a great pro," Shula said.

The All-Stars, for their part, were ready for a rematch.

"Physically we were right there with them," said John Matuszak of Tampa,

the number one choice in last year's draft. "They have the experience and that made the difference."

"They didn't hit any harder than they do in college," said Rich Glover of Nebraska, chosen as the nation's best collegiate lineman last year. "Give us another week now and I'd say we could beat them."

Estabrook seeks Bengal job

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Quarterback Wayne Estabrook is just another rookie who knows he doesn't have it made.

The last player drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals, the Whittier (Calif.) College graduate was taken in the 17th round, a ranking which usually holds little promise of security.

But like hundreds of other candidates who head to professional football camps each summer, Estabrook hopes to prove somebody wrong.

The strong-armed 22-year-old Estabrook passed for 5,074 yards in a brilliant college career which he capped by being named college division player of the year in Southern California.

Now he's just another number.

"All you can do is give it 100 per cent and hope," said Estabrook, who closed his career with five touchdown passes in his final game.

"You can't count on anything. I have no idea what I'll do if I don't make it. I haven't given it a thought," he said.

Estabrook said he accepted being selected last in the draft "because I didn't care what round I was taken in. I just wanted a chance."

The adjustment to the complexities of pro football is not easy, he said.

"Compared to college, it's real complicated. I study the play book every minute I can. I'm just trying to absorb everything."

"The biggest adjustment is reading the defenses and spotting the open receiver. And the pass rush is so much quicker," said Estabrook, who is battling veterans Ken Anderson, Virgil Carter and Greg Cook.

"I was surprised to find everyone so friendly. It's not exactly what I expected . . ."

Reed wins Stokes Award

MONTICELLO, N.Y. — Willis Reed, captain of the New York Knicks and the Most Valuable Player in the 1973 National Basketball Association Championship playoff series, has been named the winner of the Maurice Stokes Memorial award, it was announced Saturday.

The award, which goes to the NBA player who best typifies the courage and determination of the late Stokes, will be presented to Reed on Tuesday, August 14, at Kutsher's Country Club, site of the annual benefit basketball game played in Stokes' memory.

Reed climaxed an excellent comeback from injuries last season by leading the Knicks to their second world championship in four years.

Previous winners of the award were Dave Stallworth, now of the Capital Bullets, Kevin Loughery, now coach of the New York Nets and Wilt Chamberlin of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Shoulder forces Cook to retire

Star bids farewell to Cincy's Bengals

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — "It's hell to go out there, knowing what I once could do, and not do it. This is it."

The words came hard for Greg Cook as he bid football a final farewell Friday, on the eve of the Cincinnati Bengals first major scrimmage.

His comeback bid blunted by a shoulder weakened from three operations in as many years, Cook announced: "I have to be realistic. I can't play here the way it—the shoulder—is."

His retirement leaves three Bengals quarterbacks in camp as the team faces another week before its exhibition opener against the World Champion Miami Dolphins, who defeated the College All-Stars 14-3 Friday night.

Cook, a passing sensation in his first pro season, was the American Football League's rookie of the year in 1969. He led the club to a 4-9-1 record in its second year of existence.

"I'm like a pitcher who has lost something. My arm doesn't react like it should," he said.

Cook announced his retirement in early 1972 when his arm failed to respond, but he returned this summer. "I'll quit before I sit on the bench," he said recently.

Bengals Coach Paul Brown said Cook "made the decision himself and we accept it. He said he can't see that much of a change in his arm. He thanked me and the club for sticking with him."

The 26-year-old Cook, who set national collegiate passing records at the University of Cincinnati, was considered one of the brightest young quarterbacks on pro football until a collision with two Kansas City Chiefs tacklers wrecked his shoulder.

"He could have been the premier quarterback in the league," said Brown.

WCH stars nudged in district

The Washington C. H. Little League all-star suffered a heartbreaking 1-0 setback to First Dayton in 10 innings at the District 8 tournament championship game Friday night at Dayton.

The loss sidelined the Washington C. H. stars with a glittering 3-1 tournament record which included back-to-back no-hitters by Glenn Cobb and Ronnie West.

Cobb, who authored Washington C. H.'s first no-hit gem, nearly turned the trick again as he scattered a meager four hits in a dazzling nine-inning stint.

THE TEAMS were locked in a scoreless pitching duel for nine complete innings before First Dayton pushed across a run in the bottom of the 10th inning to spoil Washington C. H.'s bid.

Cobb fanned 11 batters, while walking only one in the brilliant mound stint. Little League pitchers, by rule, are permitted to pitch only six innings, except in tournament play when they are allowed to go nine innings.

Freddie Jones replaced Cobb in the 10th inning and unfortunately was tagged with the loss after surrendering only one hit.

Washington C. H.'s pitching was incredible through four tourney outings as the local boys gave up only eight hits in the four games.

Sneed locked horns with Cobb in the pitching duel and gave up four hits in nine innings before he was lifted in favor of Huston who was credited with the pitching victory.

Joe Smith cracked a pair of singles to spark the four-hit offensive effort for the Washington C. H. all-star team, managed by Charles Howard and coached by Jim Eddlemon. J. McDonald contributed a double and Cobb had a single.

Leggy Lassie and Horn Piper, 6-5, paid $16.00 in the daily double.

The crowd of 1,978 wagered $127,274.

Post 25 strands 10 runners in setback

By MIKE FLYNN
Record-Herald Sports Editor

A total of 10 stranded runners spelled the doom of the Washington C.H. Post 25 American Legion baseball team Friday night in the District 7 tournament at Hillsboro's city park as always-tough Chillicothe Post 757 eked out a nerve-racking 3-2 win.

The setback ushered Washington C.H. to the sidelines of the double elimination warfare after a fine tournament showing by manager Dennis Morris' team.

IT WAS a heartbreaker for Post 25 as both teams turned in fine performances, but the key proved to be

Bench's two homers riddle Braves, 12-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati pitcher Jack Billingham has a Johnny Bench doll. Billingham just winds it up when he's due to take the mound and it hits homers and drives in runs like they were going out of style.

"I don't know what we have going, but I hope he keeps it up," Billingham said Friday after Bench knocked in six runs home with a pair of homers and a bases-loaded walk in the Reds' 12-2 rout of the Atlanta Braves.

With Bench doing his thing, Billingham, the only National Leaguer who made the All-Star team but didn't get into the game, scattered five hits for his 15th victory, tying San Francisco's Ron Bryant for the league lead. Bench has slugged six of his 20 homers and picked up 25 of his 77 RBI in games Billingham has started. He is batting just .243 over-all, but .337 with Billingham on the mound. Last year, 15 of his league-leading 40 home runs came with Billingham pitching.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets slowed down the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 behind Tom Seaver, the Pittsburgh Pirates outthit the Chicago Cubs 10-6, the Houston Astros stopped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2, the San Diego Padres trimmed the San Francisco Giants 6-2 and the Montreal Expos rallied to nip the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4.

Rusty Staub's two-out double on a 3-0 pitch snapped a tie in the sixth inning. Staub's drive off loser Rick Wise was gloved against the right field wall by Bernie Carbo, but he dropped it as he hit the fence.

St. Louis, which retained its 1½-game lead over the Cubs in the East Division despite the defeat, took a 1-0 lead against Seaver, 12-5, in the first inning. John Milner's 15th home run in the fifth tied the score.

A two-run homer by Richie Zisk and two-run singles by Al Oliver and Manny Sanguillen highlighted a 21-hit Pirate attack against the slumping Cubs.

The Cubs, who led the division from May 9-July 22, have lost 17 of their 23 games this month.

Roger Metzger's two-out triple capped a three-run fifth inning as Houston came from behind to cut the Dodgers' lead in the NL West to five games over the Reds.

Dave Roberts' tie-breaking single off Juan Marichal highlighted a two-run sixth inning that enabled the Padres to end a seven-game losing streak and snap the Giants' six-game winning streak. Bill Greif hurled a five-hitter.

Roberts also started a three-run ninth-inning with a single.

Mike Jorgensen's two-run triple capped a three-run ninth-inning rally for Montreal.

ED SPRAGUE

Reds obtain Crosby for Ed Sprague

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds obtained St. Louis Cardinal infielder Ed Crosby Friday, five days after losing shortstop Dave Conception for the remainder of the season.

"We got him mainly for protection at shortstop," said Reds' Manager Sparky Anderson.

The Reds traded relief pitcher Ed Sprague, 1-3, and a Class AAA player to be named later in exchange for Gene Dusan, a minor league catcher. Crosby is scheduled to join the Reds today in San Diego while Dusan has been assigned to the Reds' Indianapolis farm team.

A 6-2, 180-pounder, Crosby was the regular shortstop for St. Louis at the beginning of the 1972 season but this year has been used mostly as a pinch hitter, hitting .128.

Cleveland Browns

release Don Madden

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns cut their preseason squad to 66 by releasing another running back as the team geared for its second scrimmage of the year today.

The Browns released rookie Don Madden, 25, of Fenton, Mich., on waivers Friday. Madden attended college at Eastern Michigan University.

Quiet explosion wins

River Downs race

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Quiet Explosion caught fire in the stretch and won Friday's featured $2,600 eighth race at River Downs by a neck.

The six-furlong race was run in 1:10 4-5 of a second on a fast track.

He paid $14.60, $4.80 and $3.00. Red Bone, the second place finisher, paid $2.80 and $2.20. Third place Blue Charger returned $2.80.

Scioto results

Green, Fezler share honors

MONTREAL (AP) — Hubert Green admitted he was a little surprised to be sharing the lead. Forrest Fezler didn't say anything, but looked puzzled about all the attention he was getting.

The two long shots managed 71s, just one under par, but it was good enough to stand up for the second round lead Friday in the $175,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament as gusty winds and a wet and soggy course sent some of the game's great names packing.

"The wind was stronger, the grass was higher. The sand was deeper. The water was colder. I just had a helluva day," summarized first round leader Hale Irwin, who blew 10 strokes higher in the windblown second round.

Green, the current Tallahassee Open champ, and the youthful Fezler made the best of the adverse conditions with 138 totals, six under par on the 6,905-yard Richelieu Valley Golf Club course.

Mud-spattered Bobby Mitchell, who had to stand in casual water for his second shot and in a creek for his third, had the lead until he made triple-bogey seven on the troublesome 18th hole and finished with 70—139.

Then came Irwin, who went from a 65 to 75 and a tie at 140 with British Open champion Tom Weiskopf. Weiskopf had a 73 and said, "I just played bad."

Bengal scrimmage scheduled today

WILMINGTON — The usual overflow crowd is expected at the Cincinnati Bengals training camp today when head coach Paul Brown parades his troops in a full scrimmage that probably will last not much more than an hour.

The annual scrimmage is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m., and it will be the only all-out combat, complete with tackling, before the Bengals open the pre-season campaign against the Miami Dolphins in the Orange Bowl next Saturday night.

O's sweep twinbill to tighten scramble for lead in AL East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Palmer is getting closer and so are the Kansas City Royals.

Baltimore's Palmer nearly had the second no-hitter of his baseball career for the third time this season Friday night.

George Hendrick's leadoff single in the eighth inning was the only hit Cleveland managed against the Orioles' ace with Palmer pitching Baltimore to a 9-0 romp over Cleveland in the front half of a doubleheader sweep. The Birds took the second game 5-2 and moved to within 1½ games of the first place New York Yankees in the American League East.

In the west, Kansas City came from behind to tie the score in the last of the ninth inning and then pushed across the winning run on Carl Taylor's single in the 10th to beat Chicago 2-1. The victory edged the Royals to within one-half game of first place Oakland.

In other AL games Friday, the Yankees rallied twice to overtake Milwaukee 7-6, Minnesota beat Oakland 8-2, Texas tripped California 5-2 and Detroit defeated Boston 4-2. In the National League, New York shaded St. Louis 2-1, Pittsburgh defeated Chicago 10-6, Cincinnati defeated Atlanta 12-2, Houston beat Los Angeles 5-2, Montreal edged Philadelphia 5-2 and San Diego beat San Francisco 6-2.

Palmer had a string of 5 1-3 hitless innings snapped in a game against Chicago July 14 and on June 16, he retired the first 25 batters he faced before surrendering a couple hits against Texas in the ninth.

Designated hitter Tommy Davis gave Palmer plenty of batting support in the opener, driving in five Oriole runs with two singles and a double.

In the second game, Andy Etchebarren boomed a three-run double and Cleveland reliever Jerry Johnson contributed a two-run throwing error.

Steve Busby pitched a neat four-hitter and KC came from behind late to overtake the White Sox.

Chicago was leading 1-0 until the ninth. John Mayberry doubled and a pinch single by Hal McRae scored pinch runner Taylor with the tying run. Then in the 10th, Freddie Patek walked, stole second and raced home on Taylor's two-out single.

Roy White tripled and then trotted home on Ron Blomberg's tie-breaking single in the eighth inning, lifting New York past Milwaukee.

New York twice wiped out three-run Milwaukee leads in the early innings and reliever Lindy McDaniel earned the victory, allowing just two hits in 6 2-3 innings.

Minnesota erupted for seven runs in the first inning, three of them on catcher George Mitterwald's 14th homer of the season.

Detroit's Al Kaline drove in three runs with a single and his fifth homer of the season. That pushed his career total to an even 1,500 RBIs.

The victory was Detroit's 10th in 11 games against Boston this season.

Texas stretched its longest winning streak in two seasons to six games with Tom Griev's three-run homer proving decisive.

Let's tour Ohio

Akron area appealing

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of short tours of Ohio travel attractions prepared by the Fayette County Automobile Club for The Record-Herald.

Akron never "tires" of being referred to as the "Rubber Capital of the World." The Northeast Ohio city has many appealing factors for tourists and is the suggested AAA tour this week.

Stan Hywet (which means stone hewn) Hall is considered one of the finest examples of English Tudor architecture in the United States. Built in 1911-1915 by Frank A. Seiberling, founder of Goodyear and Seiberling rubber companies, this 65-room manor house has 33 rooms, open to visitors during the guided tour. Furnishings are antiques and art treasures dating from the 14th to 18th centuries.

A rose garden, sunken English walled garden and Japanese garden lines the beautiful grounds of Stan Hywet.

OTHER NEARBY attractions are the Perkins Mansion, built in 1931 by Gen. Simon Perkins, founder of Akron, and the John Brown House in which abolitionist John Brown lived for two years.

Almost all the animals of the 10-acre Akron Children's Zoo can be handled and wander freely over the grounds. Johnathon Hale Homestead, the oldest brick home in the area, contains a fine museum.

BLOSSOM MUSIC CENTER, located nearby, is the summer home for the Cleveland orchestra. The $6.6 million pavilion, acclaimed an architectural success because of perfect acoustics and unobstructed sightlines, seats 4,600 under cover and an additional 10,000 on the lawns.

Railways of American museum, off Ohio Route 8, contains a working model electric railroad with more than 1,000 cars, some dating back to 1830.

Akron has a rich sports background, annually hosting the professional golfer's tour, the "World Series of Golf," the professional bowler's tournament — the Firestone Tournament of Champions. The Rubber Capital is home both for professional men's and women's bowling associations.

AAA suggests this routing to the tour area: From Washington C. H., take I-71 north to Ohio 224 and I-76 east to Akron and on north to the rest of the touring area.

Red Cross joins fight on disease

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The International Red Cross will join the Brazilian government in a program to inoculate primitive Amazon Indians against smallpox, measles, malaria and tuberculosis.

The program will cost $5 million and will involve 80,000 Indians under the jurisdiction of the government's Indian agency.

The International Red Cross will finance and staff three working teams using two boats and one plane starting in the western Amazon region.

"We don't even know how many Indians actually live in the area," said Gen. Jeronimo Bandeira de Mello, president of the Indian agency. "And the Indians that we do know live in tiny scattered groups of four to five families, often a eight-hour river trip apart."

The foreign Red Cross personnel will train for three weeks under the agency's supervision before beginning work.

"They have to learn about the Indians," said Bandeira de Mello. "The Indians, for instance, love injections and hate pills."

Actor Tony Curtis, whose real name is Bernard Schwartz, was born in New York June 3, 1925.

Marijuana case hearings slated

Hearing date for two Fayette County men charged with possession of marijuana following a July 15, raid on their Bush Road home by sheriff's deputies has been set for Aug. 20 at 1 p.m.

The two, Jay Gordon, 21, and James Baugh III, 21, were freed on $1,000 bond shortly after they were arrested. Sheriff's deputies said there were seven persons including three juveniles in the house when they entered just after midnight.

No charges were filed against the others present.

Boost in milk price too small, farmers feel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some Ohio farmers aren't happy about the recently announced hike in the price of milk, according to the manager of the Columbus division of Central Ohio Co-operative Milk Producers, Inc.

Robert Moran said Thursday, "Some don't think it will be enough to keep them in business... and with the weather and all. They can't get enough hay to feed their cows."

The co-operative Thursday announced that milk companies would pay producers an additional one cent per quart as a result of the lifting of the federal price freeze on food.

Moran said the payment increase, scheduled to go into effect July 30, would probably be felt by the consumer immediately. Three major milk producers in Ohio indicated milk prices would rise about two cents per quart in stores.

'Senator Sam' finds applause lowering tone of hearings

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. telling his Watergate spectators not to applaud is like a stripper telling her audience not to stare.

The "old country lawyer" with the dancing eyebrows and puckish grin is getting tough with his fans. They don't seem to mind—but they don't always listen, either.

The chairman of the Senate Watergate committee has become something of a folk hero to the more than 1,000 people each day who crowd in and drift out of the rear section of the Old Senate office building Caucus Room.

They cheer "Senator Sam" and boo his unworthy adversaries.

No one much minded at first when they laughed at his downhome North Carolina stories and cheered his Bible-based wisdom, but lately they have even taken to applauding his entrance after every recess.

"I am going to respectfully request the audience not to make any kind of a demonstration or indicate in any way their approval or disapproval of anybody or anything, including myself," Ervin told the spectators Wednesday.

The transcript of the afternoon session duly noted the chairman's admonition was followed by laughter.

But the spectator turnover is constant throughout the day. Ervin no sooner finishes scolding one crowd before another unprepared group has moved in to replace it.

Ervin, aware that the committee's constitutional confrontation with the White House has drawn it deeper into controversy, has sought to avoid having the hearings branded as a circus, and now makes it a practice to ask for audience silence every hour or two.

Maros wins Philippines referendum

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos received overwhelming support today from early returns in a referendum on extension of his martial law regime.

Tabulations from 661 citizens' assemblies in the greater Manila area listed 231,942 "yes" votes and 45,428 "no" votes on the single question: "Do you want President Marcos to continue beyond 1973 and finish the reforms he has initiated under martial law?"

Final results from the secret balloting are not expected before Aug. 3.

Balloting appeared to go relatively smoothly today, the last day of voting, after mixups in voter registration lists caused widespread confusion on Friday.

Brig. Gen. Fidel Ramos, the chief of the Philippine constabulary, said there had been no violent incidents in the referendum.

"The situation is very, very peaceful throughout the country," he said in a television interview.

The statement seemed to indicate that the plebiscite was carried out even in such southern areas as Zamboanga and Sulu provinces and Basilan Island, where the government is fighting a Moslem revolt.

Meanwhile, the government continued to threaten registered voters with a $3 fine or jail term of up to six months if they stayed away from the polls.

Dayton man, mother killed in collision

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP) — Claude Wimberly, 32, of Dayton and his 83-year-old mother Samantha Wimberly, also of Dayton, were killed Friday when their car collided with a tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike about ten miles west of here.

Wimberly's daughter Marsha, 9, was in critical condition at a local hospital. Another daughter, Deonna, 11, was listed in fair condition.

Opening lead - nine of clubs.
 Dear Mr. Becker: Most players don't grasp the psychological factors of the game. I know what I'm talking about because I've been playing in the same rubber bridge game for many years, and I am far and away the biggest winner in the game.

It's not because I play better than the others - it's because I have a big edge over them in psychology. For instance, I won a 3,300-point rubber the other night - the very first one we played. My partner and I didn't have the cards to warrant such a mammoth win, and actually we should have lost on the rubber.

It was the psychology that did it, and it was this hand that got us off to a flying start. I got to five spades and West led his singleton club.

I won with the king, led the ten of spades, and finessed. West took the king and made the good play of a low heart in order to get a club ruff.

East started to steam inwardly when he saw the heart lead because he wanted a club return also. An when he put on the ten of hearts, it held the trick - because I discarded a diamond!

Discarding a diamond was a key play, and if you don't understand why, Mr. Becker, you're missing the point completely. East laid down the ace of diamonds, which now made West very angry over East's failure to return a club. I ruffed and claimed the balance, making five.

You never heard such an uproar as now took place as they berated each other bitterly for failing to return a club. Neither of them had noticed my seven-card suit. From this point on, they were each so upset that they couldn't do anything right - and all this was brought about by my brilliant diamond discard. Cordially yours, John Q. Dough.

Knee Clicks May Aid Science

Noisy, clicking sounds from various joints of the body, especially the knees, were always considered a symphonic nuisance.

Now, a group of scientists at the University of Akron in Ohio believe that some of these noises may, if correctly interpreted, be useful in the diagnosis of disease, disorder, and changes within the joints.

Dr. Mamerto Chu and his co-workers have been studying electrical patterns made by the clicking noises and are coming to some interesting conclusions.

Even at this early date, they believe that the translation of the orchestrated sounds could indicate underlying disease which can be recognized early and thereby treated more effectively.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye!
 The ureter is a tiny tube that leads from the kidney and carries urine into the bladder. In some cases of cancer, it becomes necessary to cut this ureter and bypass the urinary flow into an artificial bladder outside the body. This is cumbersome and distressing to the patient.

Dr. Andre Stern of the Saint-Antoine Hospital in France is now using an artificial ureter made of silicone. This is implanted into the patient's own bladder and effectively eliminates the need for the external device.

In the series of cases treated in this manner by Dr. Stern, the results have been excellent. With improvements in the surgical technique, it is thought that many patients will be markedly benefitted and freed from the psychological and physical burden of the method now in use.

Viruses have resisted many chemicals designed to destroy them. Antibiotics, so effective against many bacteria, have not proved of any value in their attack against viruses.

At the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., a new drug known as Poly I:C is being used in an effort to find that elusive method of killing viruses.

Dr. William A. Carter is using this drug with recognizable success. He believes, however, that the greatest unfavorable factor is the fact that it is still exceedingly toxic in experimental animals.

By past experience, it is known that toxicity in drugs, when carefully studied, can usually be eliminated. His experimentation will be viewed with great interest.

The American people should know that the Roswell Park Institute stands out as one of the most significant international institutions because of the wide horizons they have opened for the control and cure of cancer, viral infection, and other devastating conditions.

Scandal hearings

after the Connecticut Republican questioned Ehrlichman about the hiring of former New York policeman Anthony Ulasewicz to handle investigations for the White House. Ehrlichman defended the hiring.

"I am quite satisfied that our system, our institutions, are perfectly capable of passing decent judgment, fair judgment, hard judgment on political figures, public officials, without the covert operations of men like Mr. Ulasewicz," Weicker said.

Ehrlichman stressed the only probe of an individual politician Ulasewicz conducted while under Ehrlichman's supervision concerned Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and the incident in which a young woman, Mary Jo Kopechne, died in Kennedy's car at Chappaquiddick Island, Mass.

In other Watergate developments Friday:

—Special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox said he has asked the White House to hand over files on the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. He said the files were "of utmost importance" and that the request had been pending for some time.

—Julie Nixon Eisenhower, the President's daughter, said her father would publicly discuss the Watergate scandal soon, perhaps within two weeks.

—President Nixon's 1972 Democratic opponent, Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, said in a Senate speech on election reform that Nixon should release Watergate tapes and documents to "restore the credibility and capacity of government."

—Weicker, in a luncheon speech, charged Nixon with trying to run "a presidency rather than a democracy."

Ehrlichman continued to dispute the testimony of fired White House counsel John W. Dean III about crucial White House meetings on Watergate.

Ehrlichman said he didn't think Dean told Nixon as much about the cover-up as Dean says he did.

Ehrlichman also said Dean told him and former White House chief of staff H.R. Haldeman that they were not indictable in the cover-up. Dean testified he told them the opposite.

Dean claimed the President acted toward Ehrlichman and Haldeman as if they were principals in the cover-up. However, Ehrlichman testified Nixon viewed them as involved in a battle over executive privilege.

Asked if Nixon ever asked Ehrlichman to discuss the matter with him Ehrlichman said: "One time he lifted up the phone and said 'I am satisfied John Dean is in this so deeply he just can't have anything more to do with it.'"

Accompanying Nixon on the helicopter trip Friday to the presidential retreat in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains were Mrs. Nixon and C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo, his friend and Key Biscayne, Fla., neighbor.

Minor damage reported in four accidents

Police and sheriff's departments each investigated two accidents Friday. The four mishaps resulted in very little damage and no injuries.

Sheriff's deputies said that Randy Beekman, 16, of Leesburg, failed to negotiate a right curve on Snow Hill Road at Staunton-Jasper Road. First going left of center and then crossing the road, Beekman struck a fence on the right side. He was cited for reckless operation.

The accident, which occurred at 6:25 p.m., resulted in moderate damage to the vehicle.

At 1:15 p.m. a car driven by James L. Gifford, 26, of Dayton, went out of control on U.S. Rt. 35 approximately five miles south of the city. The auto crossed left of center, catching the left berm, and ended up in a ditch on the right side of the road. Damage was minor.

Police were summoned to an accident on Court Street, near North at 2 p.m. yesterday. Carl D. Blakeley, 27, of 766 High St., sideswiped the car of Russell Lanman, of Leesburg, which was parked on Court Street. Damage to the two vehicles was minor.

Friday morning, Ronnie L. Salyers, 23, of 433 E. Paint St., was driving his truck on Eastern Avenue when he sideswiped a truck owned by Ralph Merritt, police said. The truck was parked in front of Merritt's residence at 607 Eastern Ave. Damage to the vehicles was slight.

Senate OKs funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted to spend $210 million to keep the nation's financially troubled railroads on the track.

The bill, if enacted, would authorize the Department of Transportation to spend the money to keep lines that fail in operation.

It is part of a package drafted by Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., to prevent further deterioration of railroad service in the Northeast and Midwest.

During the debate, Hartke said $125 million would be used to pay off a federally guaranteed loan obtained by the now-bankrupt Penn Central in 1970. However, his office later issued a statement noting, "the bill does pay off past government obligations of the Penn Central and other bankrupts, as is currently reported in some quarters."

Food bills grow; worse in store

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Weekend shoppers found their food bills were bigger today, amid warnings that the worst is yet to come.

It's been a week and a half since President Nixon announced the Phase 4 economic program that allows the food industry to pass on increases in the cost of all raw agricultural products except beef.

The prices of a wide range of items—particularly pork, dairy and poultry products—rose sharply during the first full week of Phase 4, and there were numerous reports of people stocking up heavily to beat the price hikes.

The beef industry complained that it could not survive the continued ceilings on beef. There were fewer cattle sent to market, some processors shut down or curtailed operations and retailers said they were having to search harder to fill orders for beef.

Nixon administration officials have said the talk of shortages is exaggerated. They said that, although there is a tendency for farmers to withhold beef from market, the cattle must be sent to slaughter sooner or later.

Bob Hodge, the meat merchandizer for Kroger's, a large supermarket chain based in Cleveland, Ohio, said, "Business has been exceptionally good

Trash must be at curbside starting here on Sept. 1

Curbside trash pickup will become a fact of life in Washington C.H. Sept. 1, according to an agreement by local refuse collectors. As of that date, rubbish that is placed more than three feet from the street and not in plastic bags or metal cans will not be collected.

There will be no increase in rates.

The move was spurred by problems created by anti-burning regulations now in force. The ban of burning has increased the volume of refuse that must be collected. Refuse haulers say they can pick up the trash with no increase in costs if it is placed by the curb.

Putting all trash at curbside is standard in most cities now, including area communities such as Sabina, Mount Sterling and Jamestown.

Ted Cartwright, of Cartwright Rubbish Removal, said all people who pay for trash collecting service will soon receive a notice detailing the whys and wherefores of the new policy.

Among other stipulations in the handbill are requirements all limbs and shrubs be tied in bundles not more than four feet long; that trash should be at curbside by 7 a.m. on the scheduled pickup day; and that alley service will not be available to residential property.

The plan has the approval of the Board of Health, Cartwright said.

2 injured in Michigan tornado

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fair skies prevailed over much of the nation today but were broken in some areas by widely scattered thundershowers.

The showers were scattered along the Atlantic and eastern Gulf coasts, from the southern Great Lakes region to the southwestern Plains and through the Rocky Mountain and Plateau region.

Thunderstorms rumbled into portions of Arizona Friday evening, causing flash flooding between Tucson and Phoenix.

Storms also lashed southern Michigan, with a tornado raking a quarter-mile area near Portage. Police said the twister damaged at least four houses, uprooted trees and knocked out power and telephone service. Two persons were slightly injured.

In Chicago, flights at O'Hare International Airport were delayed up to 15 minutes by storms.

Two brothers were killed by lightning near Victoria, Tex., as they prepared to get in pickup trucks in a hayfield.

Significant rainfall during the night included more than an inch and a half in Victoria, and more than an inch at Florence, S.C.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 48 at Grand Forks Air Force Base, N.D., to 94 at Needles, Calif.
